THE CAMPAIGN.

The Governor's Last Charge

OVATIONS IN LOWER OIL REGION.

Great Mass Meeting at Butler.

The Centennial Governor En Route to Harrisburg.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
BUTLER, PA., November 1, 1875.

Governor Hartranft left Parker City this morning at half-past eight by the Parker and Karns City narrow gauge. On the arrival of the train at Petrolia, the distinguished visitor was received with a salute of cannon, blowing of whistles and hearty cheers of hundreds of citizens. The Governor alighted and entered the Oil Exchange, and received the citizens in an informal way. After fifteen minutes spent in the interchange of greeting, &c., the train passed on, the crowd sending cheer upon cheer after the State's favorite son. At Karns City a few minutes were spent in hand-shaking, and the Governor and party took carriages for Millerstown and Butler. At the former place a formal meeting had been announced, and after church with Joseph H. Simonds, of the Relief Pipe Line Company, the visiting party went to the Opera House, which at an early hour, eleven o'clock, was well filled with enthusiastic admirers of Hartranft. Short addresses were made by the Governor, Hon. John M. Thompson, of Butler, and C. J. Arms. The whole affair occupied but an hour, yet was one of the pleasantest incidents of the trip across the country. Resuming their carriages, the party went on towards Butler, turning aside a few minutes to visit the wonderful gas well on the Duffy farm at St. Joe. When two miles from Butler, we were met by one hundred horsemen of the Hartranft Club, with a band, and escorted to town. The church bells rang a welcome as the procession passed through the streets. At three P. M. a mass meeting was organized in the Court House. It was a grand success so far as regards members and good feeling. The Governor and Col. Arms made the speeches. The hero of Fort Steadman felt that he was making his last charge in the battle, and he made it effective. The impression left in this city by Hartranft's presence will not only strengthen him with the party here, but increase the vote on the Republican ticket from top to bottom.

At half-past seven P. M. the Centennial Governor of Pennsylvania left Butler for Blairsville junction, there to intercept the fast line from Pittsburgh, and breakfast at home in Harrisburg.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, November 1, 1875.

RAILROAD LABORERS DISCHARGED.

The Hudson River Railroad Company has discharged over one hundred track laborers, and it is expected further dismissals will be made.

BOWEN-KINSELLA LIBEL CASES.

The libel suits of Henry C. Bowen against the Brooklyn Eagle, its editor, Thos. Kinsella, and James McDermott, a reporter, claiming damages aggregating $250,000, has been set down for trial November 8th.

MINISTERIAL CHANGES.

Rev. Dr. Storrs has retired from the Church of the Pilgrims, Brooklyn, for which he has for many years been the pastor, and accepted a call from the Old Brick Church, New York. Dr. Storrs is one of the most accomplished pulpit orators in the country. The call from the Old Brick Church was presented early last week and accepted Saturday.

Rev. Dr. J. D. Fulton, pastor of Hanson Place Baptist church, Brooklyn, has resigned. He says he does not care to participate in another such meeting as the one held on Friday night, when, it is stated, the conduct of some of the members towards their pastor was characterized by anything else than Christian charity.

ATTEMPT TO SUPPRESS THE SOCIALIST MOVEMENT IN RUSSIA.

A letter from Russia states that the Government is engaged in a vigorous raid against the socialist agitators. Speeches had been made in numerous places, among others at Moscow, Fulla, Odessa, Riazan, and St. Petersburg. In one village near Moscow, thirty working men have been siezed by the police. Some of the prisoners resisted arrest, and one, M. Rogateneff, believed to be a leader of the socialist movement, defended himself so desperately that he had to be killed. The police are reported under the impression that they have struck a blow at the very stronghold and center of the movement, which will put an effective stop to its further spread.

BANKRUPT RAILWAY COMPANIES.

A meeting was held to-day at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, called by Herman Reichtein, treasurer of St. Louis county, Missouri, under instructions of the County Court of St. Louis county, to whom the Atlantic and Pacific and Missouri and Pacific Railroads are indebted in the sum of $720,000 for monies loaned by the county. Those present were Col. Clinton B. Fiske, treasurer of the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad; C. W. Billings, of Cleveland, to whom the Pacific and Atlantic is indebted in the sum of $100,000; Edward Goodwin, a stockholder of the Missouri and Pacific Railroad Company, and Herman Reichtein, treasurer of St. Louis county. Mr. F. I. Bowman, attorney for St. Louis county, was also present for the purpose of making an examination of officers of the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad before a United States Commissioner in the matter of the bankruptcy proceedings instituted on Thursday last in the United States District Court of the Eastern district of Missouri against the Missouri and Pacific Road, which proceedings were instituted by the county of St. Louis as creditors. Mr. Bowman made a statement of the reasons which had actuated the proceeding. He said the Atlantic and Pacific road, as lessees of the Missouri and Pacific road, had become indebted to the State of Missouri and several counties through which the roads pass, for unpaid losses; that they were also indebted to the county of St. Louis in the sum of $720,000, the interest of which they had not paid since June last; that the County Treasurer having ascertained that a mortgage of $4,000,000 had been put upon the Missouri Pacific road, which was virtually a sell out of the unsecured creditors and stockholders of the Missouri Pacific Railroad. Mr. Bowman propounded the following questions to Mr. Fiske: Under what circumstances and by what authority were the mortgage of $1,500,000, $2,000,000 and $4,000,000 contracted? How much was realized under the mortgages, and what had been done with the money? and as the Atlantic and Pacific Company had failed to pay its creditors, would his company make a statement of their affairs? Mr. Fiske promised that if the meeting would adjourn until Wednesday, full answers would then be given to all their questions. The meeting then adjourned. It is claimed that the mortgages were made in fraud of the rights of the stockholders and unsecured creditors of the Missouri Pacific road.

THE MOODY-SANKEY REVIVAL.

There was another large gathering at the revival meeting at the Brooklyn Rink, this evening. Sankey sang, "Go Bury Thy Sorrow," alone, and the congregation assisted in another hymn. Moody spoke of the failure of men to save their souls being due to lack of faith in the promises of the Lord and their unbelief. He compared sinners here to the sick in the wilderness, who were only healed by looking upon a brass serpent, which was lifted up by Moses. Many refused to look on the serpent, because they could not understand the philosophy of it; so many here were not converted because they did not try to understand it, and did not accept God's word. He offered prayer for the salvation of all those present. Inquiry meetings were afterwards held in the Simpson M. E. Church.

FORECASTING TO-DAY'S RESULT—REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

MILWAUKEE, November 1.—A campaign of unprecedented activity was closed to-night, and there were meetings in the principal cities of the State. Ex-Senator Carpenter addressed two large gatherings in this city, one in the South division and one in the West. Estimates from well informed sources predict the election of Ludington, the Republican candidate for Governor.

The scheme for erecting a Centennial Patrons Encampment for the accommodation of members of the order who may desire to visit the Centennial, is meeting with great favor. It is proposed by the Farmer's Friend to form a joint stock company exclusively Granger, with a capital of $150,000 in shares of $50, to erect an encampment of wooden tents, where the Patrons from all parts of the country can meet and find accommodations and prices adapted to the tastes of the honest farmer. Such an encampment would do much to solve the problem of Centennial accommodation.

CHICAGO.

Military Under Arms—Troubles at Osage Indian Agency.

CHICAGO, November 1.—Governor Beveridge arrived here to-day, and will remain during the election to-morrow. He has ordered out the First regiment to be under arms, and to remain at the armory to-morrow.

The Tribune's Kansas City special says the news from the Osage Indian agency is to the effect that Agent Gibson has sent to the Cheyenne agency for one hundred cavalry, and with this support expects to force the Indians into submission. These Indians, who are opposed to Gibson's late action, have ordered him to remove all goods off the reservation. Superintendent Hoag has been sent for, and he will probably quiet the disturbance and settle the matter in dispute on his arrival.

RAILWAY MATTERS.

Aid for a Narrow Gauge from Omaha Westward.

OMAHA, November 1.—The Commissioners of this county to-day issued a proclamation calling for a special election November 30th, to vote on the proposition to give aid to the builders of a narrow gauge railroad directly west from this point. It provides for voting $125,000 in 5-20 bonds at seven per cent. interest, payable if the road crosses the Platte river nearly west of the new iron bridge at Waterloo, by September 1st, 1876. The bridge is also to be constructed and used as a free wagon bridge. If it cross elsewhere, the amount to be $115,000, to be paid in installments as the road progresses. Saunders county has voted $80,000, and Butler and Polk counties have voted the amount asked for.

CRIMINAL RECORD.

Bold Young Desperadoes.

NEW YORK, November 1.—Louis and William Reuk, aged seventeen and fifteen years, have for two years led immoral lives, and a few months ago they fled from home. Saturday they sent a letter to their father at 49 Ludlow street to the effect that Detective Kealey knew where Dick Rodney (Louis) was, and could arrest him if the father would go to 300 Mulberry street. The letter purported to be signed by Detective Kealey. Mr. Reuk obeyed, and as soon as he had left the house, his sons forced open the back door, pulled out their pistols and dirk knives, and drove their brothers into another room where they locked them in. They then seized their mother, and while Louis held her and pointed a pistol at her head, William robbed her of a gold watch, locket and chain, and a pocket book. They then threatened to kill her and their brothers if they attempted to prevent them from making their escape. They have been arrested.

Saloon Keeper Clubbed and Stabbed.

NEW YORK, November 1.—Anton Bechtold, proprietor of the lager beer saloon at 408 West Fortieth street, died yesterday from injuries received Saturday night from a gang of young ruffians, who clubbed and stabbed him. Alexander Kennedy, John A. Greene and Frank Burns have been arrested.

CINCINNATI, O., November 1.—A man named Weber was instantly killed by James Harpe, at Newtown, about seven miles from this city, to-night. The particulars of the killing have not yet been received.

CASUALTIES.

Railroad Disaster—Two Men Killed and Twenty Wounded.

NEW YORK, November 1.—This morning about seven o'clock the boiler of a locomotive attached to a gravel train on the Lehigh Valley Railway, exploded three miles west of Bound Brook, killing Thomas Caper, engineer; Abraham King and William Thompson, brakemen, besides injuring about twenty others, many fatally. All the cars were thrown from the track by the force of the explosion.

A later dispatch from Bound Brook about the railroad disaster near there, says: Besides the three killed outright, two have since died, and of the twenty or more wounded, it is thought several will die.

Schooner Ashore.

PORT BURWELL, ONT., November 1.—The schooner Gibson, laden with wheat, from Detroit, came ashore last night and is full of water. The crew are safe.

He saw an unusual movement in a clump of bushes ahead of him, scanned the agitation closely and concluded the deer had taken refuge there. He fired, and on going to ascertain the result of his shot he found a little boy nine years old riddled with buckshot, covered with blood and dead. Beside the little fellow lay a basket half filled with beech nuts which he had been gathering. The child was an orphan and lived with a family named Sheibel.

WASHINGTON.

Fight Over the Speakership

VIEWS OF HON. SUNSET COX.

HE THINKS HE IS THE COMING MAN.

Secretary Cowan Not to Retire.

Reduction in the Public Debt.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
WASHINGTON, D. C., November 1, 1875.

Cowan Not to be Removed.

Assistant Secretary Cowan to-day received a letter from Secretary Chandler, to the effect that there was no truth in the statement that Third Assistant Postmaster General Barber was to be appointed Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

Reduction of the Public Debt.

The great reduction in the public debt for the last month is very gratifying.

New England Members for Kerr.

A letter was received here to-day from a prominent Democratic member of the House, stating that the most of the New England Democrats are for Kerr. A gentleman who reached here to-night gives the following as the result of a conversation between the Hon. S. S. Cox and himself on the subject of the Speakership. Mr. Cox says the contest is between him and Kerr, with the chances in his favor. He expects to get New York and Ohio solid in the caucus, and to divide Indiana and Missouri with Kerr, and will have Illinois, Michigan, Kentucky and the New England Democrats. He says that Randall will get Pennsylvania and some of the Southern States; that Kerr's strength lies in the West only, and that he will divide with him. This may be Mr. Cox's opinion, but it most certainly is not any one else's.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 1, 1875.

THE PRESIDENT FIRM FOR HIS INDIAN PEACE POLICY.

Several pastors in this city, of different denominations, who were apprehensive that the Government was about to abandon its peace policy toward the Indians, called on the President to-day to express the conviction that such a course would greatly disappoint Christian people all over the country, and be a blow to the cause of Christianity throughout the world. The President, with great promptness and precision, replied that he did not regard the peace policy a failure, and that it not only would not be abandoned while he occupied that place, but that it was his hope that during his administration it would be so firmly established as to become the necessary policy of his successor. In that he might possibly be mistaken.

THOSE POOR "ORPHANS."

McKee Rankin Runs Against Another Legal Sawyer in St. Louis—Tries to Produce the Play, but an Injunction is Served During the First Act.

ST. LOUIS, November 1.—Shook & Palmer, of the Union Square Theater, New York, made application this afternoon through counsel to Judge Lindley, of the Circuit Court of this county, setting in Chambers, for a preliminary injunction to restrain the McKee Rankin Combination from playing at DeBar's Opera House any translation of the "Two Orphans." Defendants petitioned for the removal of the case to the United States Court, and Judge Lindley, setting in Chambers, could not entertain the petition, nor hear the affidavit filed by defendant, and the temporary injunction was granted. An attempt was made to play the piece to-night, however, but during the first act a deputy sheriff appeared on the stage, served the writ of injunction on McKee Rankin and several other members of the company. The play was stopped, money refunded to the audience and the theater closed. The case will come up again to-morrow, on a motion to dissolve the injunction. The claimants were required to give bonds in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars to answer for any damage which may result. The "Two Orphans" was played at the Olympic to a crowded house by the Furbish combination, in whose behalf the injunction was applied for.

Suspension of the National Gold Bank and Trust Company of San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 1.—The National Gold Bank and Trust Company did not open this morning. A crowd assembled before the opening hour, with every indication of a continuance of the run, and the officers, as a measure of safety, refused to pay checks. The officers vouchsafe but little information. They claim that the bank can pay everything in full and will resume as soon as possible, intimating no date. The bank has been considered weak since the failure of the Bank of California, paying small deposits only in full and obtaining extension on the larger ones. No excitement is apparent at the other banks.

Damage by Floods in New England.

MANCHESTER, N. H., November 1.—The Merrimac has risen several feet, yesterday and to-day, on account of the severe storm of Saturday night, and serious fears are entertained for the safety of the river wall being built by the Amoskeag Company to straighten the river. The wall is built of solid masonry, fifteen feet high, and nearly half a mile long. On account of the narrowness of the river channel, and the great pressure of the sand on the inside, about fifty feet of the wall show signs to-day of giving way. The damage is already estimated at $5,000. Other rivers in New Hampshire and Maine show a heavy rise, and some damage. A dam and one mill were swept away on Barrel creek and Little Ossipee river, Maine.

Temperance and free distilleries—the new war cry of the united Demobition-Prohicratic party.—Philadelphia Press.

FOREIGN NEWS.

BY THE ATLANTIC CABLE

England.

THE CZAR AND THE PORTE—POSITION OF GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, November 1.—The Times this morning has a leader on the utterances of the Official Gazette of St. Petersburg, to the effect that steps must be taken by foreign cabinets to strengthen confidences, so as to enable the Porte to fulfill his promises. The Times says: We presume Russia thinks that a conference of the great powers should review the treaty of Paris, and examine into the state of the Turkish Empire. If a merely verbal pressure is all she has in view, it can be more safely applied by dispatches than by a conference. If she aims at more serious interventions, it must go so far in order to be effectual that it would raise the Eastern question in a peculiarly formidable shape. England is not prepared to take so immense a responsibility in the present unsettled state of Europe.

THUNDERER DENOUNCES AN AMERICAN RAILWAY LOAN.

LONDON, November 1.—The Times this morning, in its financial column, denounces the scheme for floating £50,000 sterling worth of the bonds of the Keokuk and Kansas City Railway.

THE GRAIN TRADE.

LONDON, November 1.—The Mark Lane Express, in its review of the corn trade for the week, says the weather has been more moderate, but there is little chance for field labor in England yet. The samples are in poor condition, but the cautiousness of millers has kept prices at previous rates. At Paris flours was a franc cheaper, while wheat was unchanged. In the provinces wheat is six-pence to a shilling higher. In Belgium, Holland, Germany, Dantzig and Vienna prices were firm, and in the latter market rather dearer. At Odessa there has been a scarcity of business, because of the pretentions of holders.

FACTORY BURNED—OPERATIVES OUT OF EMPLOYMENT.

LONDON, November 1.—A factory in Preston was destroyed by fire yesterday. Two hundred operatives are thrown out of employment.

SAILORS EXAMINED AND RELEASED.

Lloyds' representatives examined the eight sailors belonging to the crew of the ship John Pascal, burned at sea, and were satisfied as to the general truth of their depositions, and told them they would be no longer detained.

France.

BURNING OF THE IRON-CLAD MAGENTA.

PARIS, November 1.—The iron-clad Magenta, which took fire at Toulon day before yesterday, is a total wreck. The explosion set fire to the Victorieuse and Exclaireur, but the flames were promptly extinguished. A few persons were slightly wounded by the explosion.

Turkey.

INSURGENTS DEFEAT THE TURKS.

RAGUSA, November 1.—A force of 1,800 Turks was defeated while attacking a strong insurgent position near Zubi. The Turks had 150 killed. The loss of the insurgents in killed and wounded was only twenty.

Liberia.

LIBERIAN TROOPS REPULSED.

LONDON, November 1.—Advices from Cape Palmas to the 11th of October states: A Liberian force of 900 troops had attacked some native villages, but were repulsed and obliged to retire, losing twenty-four.

TOBACCO.

The Crop of 1875—Louisville Blows Her Trumpet.

LOUISVILLE, November 1.—A review and statistical record of the leaf tobacco trade of Louisville for 1874-75, published to-day, says: The year is almost as memorable as its immediate predecessor, though it will be remembered with very different feelings—a season of shrinkage and loss everywhere to those engaged in handling the staple. It is in striking contrast with the buoyancy in values and profits in trade which distinguished the former years; but if we include the vast majority of our population and the large preponderance of capital interested in cultivating tobacco, instead of buying and trading in it, the results of the year will far more than redeem its character. The successful crops and declining prices of 1875 afford better grounds for congratulation than the ruined crops and buoyant markets of 1874; but as regards the market proper, nearly the only agreeable feature to which we can refer it the fact that Louisville has continued to lead the van of primary markets of the world. There has been a small crop to handle, but she has controlled a larger proportion of that than in former years, and has also done, the extent of the general movement being considered, a large busines for other inferior markets.

THE HUSKING SEASON.

A Timely Sketch—Healthy Hilarity Displaced by Fashion.

(From the Easton Free Press.)

Corn husking time now comes on apace. But corn husking is not what it used to be. There was a time, a few years back in history, when this season brought with it delights which were by no means to be despised. The husking bee of yore was an occasion that swelled the youthful hearts of a whole neighborhood, and culminated in a gratifying array of matrimonial alliances that had a very beneficial effect upon the perquisites of country ministers and the census reports.

The healthy hilarity of the husking season went out when the country girl became one of the lost arts—when fashion tabooed romping.

The youngest son of the family was a messenger of joy and glad tidings in the days when he rode bare-back up to a neighbor's door and delivered the invitation, with:—

"S-a-a-y, our folks is goin' to hev a huskin' to-morrer, and wants all you uns to cum over. The gals 'll hev the quilt in right arter dinner.

That was enough. It wasn't a satin card, commencing with, "The compliments of Mr. and Mrs. Jones," and ending with a polite lie, but it was an invitation that came from the heart, and was accepted with an—

"All right, Bobby, we'll be there."

Then deft and pretty hands rewarded the welcome messenger with slices of toothsome mince pie, behind which his honest, sunbrowned face looked like a partial eclipse of the moon.

It is not difficult to imagine the sensations that would possess the soul of the rural young lady of to-day should she receive such an invitation from such a source. How can the present young woman be expected to get her "tie-back" under a shock of corn or how could she sit down on one without having half her rear harness shoved over her head. The thing can't be did.

When fashion came in fun went out. A woman can't romp in corsets with any more success than she can kick apples off her beau's head with her feet tied together. Fun and huskings went out together when fashion withdrew the feminine feature. It may be argued that this is one of the indications of our advanced civilization. But advanced civilization has a wasp waist, a short breath and can't club chestnuts; besides, it runs to cotton pads, false hair and an early grave with weak poetry over it. Wealthy physicians and undertakers came in with advanced civilization and are its great advocates.

Angelina Rowena may not be able to see it, but if she would take her corsets for a dried apple holder, and wrestle for kisses over the red ear, and romp with pumpkins for foot balls, letting good society say "It's peffectly howwid" if it wanted to, she would soon find herself able to draw a long breath without making three offers at it, and stand up without a nail keg around her for support.

FIRE RECORD.

Sherman, Texas.

GALVESTON, November 1.—A fire at Sherman to-night destroyed three blocks in the business portion of the town. At nine o'clock the telegraph manager reported that the fire has nearly reached his office, and was preparing to move. The wires are now down on each side, and it is supposed the office is burned.

Belleville, Ont.

BELLEVILLE, ONT., November 1.—W. D. Campbell & Co.'s elevator, containing forty thousand bushels of grain, was burned yesterday morning. The grain was owned by local dealers. Loss heavy.

Clayton Strawn, son of the late Joseph Strawn, of Doylestown, left his home twenty years ago on a whaling voyage and has recently been heard from for the first time since his departure. He is living on an island in the Pacific Ocean, engaged in the manufacture of cocoa nut oil.

OHIO NEWS.

Steubenville is to have a workhouse.

Cadiz is organizing a colored brass band.

The Grand Jury of Erie county have condemned the jail at Sandusky.

Many towns throughout Ohio are establishing public gymnasiums.

The population of Bellaire, according to a recent enumeration, is 7,070. The number of school children is 2,634.

Cincinnati papers state that the mind of L. D. Sine, the blind lottery dealer, has shown decided symptoms of feebleness, and it is apprehended that he will find lodgment in a lunatic asylum.

J. S. Rutlidge, a Lima insurance agent, has eloped with a Mrs. Perrot, the wife of one of his sub-agents, in Mercer county. Both parties leave behind them grown up children. Rutlidge leaves a wife also.

At a recent meeting of the Alumni of Oberlin College, in Chicago, addressed by President Fairchild and Professor Shurtleff, of Oberlin, the latter spoke discouragingly of the financial condition of the college, and said that "were it a commercial house it would be repudiated."

The examination of the affairs of the First National Bank of Tiffin, whose defaulting cashier suicided some time since, has been concluded. The total amount of Huss' forgeries and stealings aggregates about $150,000. He had been engaged in stock gambling with other people's money since 1868.

The Western University.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

I rejoice with very many of your readers in the fact that Chancellor Woods is making very fair progress in raising the actual money of the $100,000 necessary to secure the other $100,000 promised by one of our wealthy citizens. I hope you will soon be able to record the fact of the entire completion and paying over of the $200,000, and the securing of a new and eligible site for the new buildings. An essential matter in this connection is the completion of the arrangement with the executors of Rev. Charles Avery to give $25,000 to the University. This, I trust, will be done. It is just what I believe would be done by Mr. Avery if he were living. It is just what the leading colored men of this region desire to have done. Oberlin College has already received a large share of Mr. Avery's money. I do not object, for they have always been true to the interests of the colored people. But have not the colored people of this region equal claims? It is notorious that Avery College has proved an entire failure. I do not wish to go into the question of the causes of this failure; but I do wish to ask whether, in the midst of this effort here, is it wise or right for President Fairchild to come here, at this crisis, to divert this money to Oberlin, or in any way to hinder the endowment of the university?

Archæological Discovery.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

A leading editorial in the COMMERCIAL of the 15th inst. demands more than ordinary consideration. I refer to the reported discovery by "Prof. Gage" of certain remarkable ruins in Mississippi. I do not know Prof. Gage, and have not read his statement in full; but I may be permitted to venture a few observations on the character of his alleged discoveries. The Mound Builders of the Mississippi Valley did not dress stone for building purposes. Accounts are numerous of such "discoveries," but not a single authenticated instance is on record. The "block," therefore, to be sent to the Centennial from that "remarkable stone wall," will have to be very fully verified to attract attention.

The prehistoric nations West and South were adepts in working stone for ornamental purposes, and into implements, weapons, &c. Some of the specimens recovered from mounds and other ancient depositories are the very chef d'œuvre of antique art. Some specimens in my private collection, from mounds in the Mississippi Valley, are of faultless workmanship. It is marvellous how, with their imperfect tools, they fashioned and finished these matchless ornaments and implements. The celts, chisels, hammers, etc., are of granite, hornblende, greenstone, nephrite, and the hardest variety of amphobobi rocks. Arrow-heads, spear-points, etc., of almost every diversity of form and degree of finish, from the dull black, of the common chest, up through all the gradations, to the most brilliant opalescence of the Chalcedonic varieties. Pipes, ornaments, medals, etc., are of steatite, serpentine, talcose slate, etc., all wrought with wonderful art and taste. But, we repeat, not a single instance is on record of dressed stone for building purposes, discovered in mounds, walls or elsewhere in works of the Mound Builders. We must therefore be cautious in receiving statements not properly authenticated. I think I am familiar with every important archæological discovery on this continent, and, I repeat, the Mound Builders did not use dressed stone in their walls, mounds, chambers, etc.

I do not doubt the discovery of a wall, I only question the statement that the material used was well-dressed stone. Mural remains are found all over the West and South. A few months since I traced a stone wall on the waters of Loup creek, a tributary of the Upper Kanawha. This was of rough stone, laid dry. I cannot describe this now. Earthen walls abound all over the Ohio Valley. At Marietta were very extensive mural works, the most interesting of which have disappeared before the effacing agencies of utilitarian man. But I need not particularize.

The reference to Natchez Indians having had some connection with the Mississippi wall is all twaddle. The Natchez were simply an advanced tribe, or nation, of the great Indian race, doubtless members of the once powerful Algonquin family. Some maintain they were a distinct nation, while others claim they were offshoots of the Toltecs, and others still, that they were allied to the Incas of Peru! Du Praty represents the Natchez as using, at once, the Mobilian and a radically different speech of their own. They are all simple conjectures.

Of art remains, or lithic monuments, not a vestige exists within the comparatively limited area occupied by this people, possessing a higher type than that left by their immediate neighbors. Some specimens of fictilia supposed to have a Natchez origin are very fine, but not superior to specimens recovered from Apache, Pueblo and Ute ruins of to-day. The Natchez were exterminated by the French in 1730.

History of the South and Its Lessons.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

Every American patriot must desire the welfare of the whole South, and every enlightened American patriot must be willing to forego any sectional advantage which would militate against its prosperity, and to conform the national legislation to its interests; but no statesman will consent that it shall be the sole judge of those interests. We cannot consent that they shall separate them from or make them inimical to the common weal of the nation; and in attempting to benefit them we must not forget their history or misjudge their character.

The history of the Southern people is the history of slavery. Ideas mold men, and slavery was their one idea. No Southern man ever looked, or ever seems now to look above, beyond or below "our institutions;" our institutions meant slavery, only this and nothing more. The general welfare of the nation, the constitutional rights of Northern States or citizens, never entered into their calculations, except in laying plans to override them whenever they seemed to interfere with "our institutions." As a very small part of the American people, north of Mason and Dixon's line, ever had any correct idea of the nature of "our institutions" as these were abolished by the nation, not from any realization of their character, but only from the necessity of self-preservation, it is not strange that so large a part of the people are now blind to the organized and persistent attempts to restore these institutions.

John Wesley, one of the prophets whom God sends into the world once or twice in a century, to point mankind the upward road and lead the way, visited the South, and, as the result of his observations, said, "American slavery is the sum of all villainies; the vilest system that ever saw the sun!"

What shall we say of the people who merged their entire existence, as a people, in such an institution? Of the people who devoted their entire energies to the support, extension and perpetuation of such a system? If we should apply to them the epithets which would logically follow, we should be charged with calling names, and very bad ones.

We have good authority for believing that it is not easy for "the Ethiopian to change his skin, or the leopard his spots," and would it be any easier for a people to change the habits of thought and action in which they have been trained for two centuries? "Lying is the vice of slaves," deceit and violence the necessary conditions of slaveholding. The proudest of the sons of the South did, for years and years, come to Washington, and, under the sacred obligation of an oath to support the Constitution, plan its destruction and seek, by every means, to compass its overthrow. It is more than probable that every Federal officer in the South, from the days of Calhoun to those of Lincoln, took his oath of office with the deliberate purpose of fighting, to the death, against the Constitution, whenever the interests of slavery might seem to demand it.

Their practice of false swearing was so nearly universal that when the breaking out of the rebellion exposed it to the astonished gaze of the world, men were shocked, for a time, but soon settled down into that apathy with which they usually regard the sins of the multitude; and the heniousness of a sin is always counted in inverse ratio to the number of the sinners. So soon and thoroughly did Northern people become accustomed to this form of Southern tactics that, in 1866, we solemnly nationalized perjury for their benefit. We did this when the United States Senate, with two dissenting voices, voted to permit Mr. Patterson, Senator-elect from Tennessee, to take the oath of office, while he admitted that to him it contained three distinct falsehoods.

There was no room for quibble or misunderstanding. He was obliged, before taking his seat, to swear that he had "never sought, accepted or held any office under any government hostile to that of the United States." He had held the office of Judge under the Confederacy; and when his term expired had sought re election, accepted and held the office to the end of his second term. The question was raised and discussed, for hours, by the ablest debators in the Senate. Judge Patterson assumed that he had acted out of concealed friendship to the United States, thus placing himself in the position of having perjured himself in swearing to support the Confederacy, while expressing his entire willingness to repeat the offense, by swearing that he had not done what he said he had done.

Judge Trumbull, in urging his claim, admitted, frankly, that he, himself, in Judge Patterson's place, could not take that oath; but thought the Senate ought to leave it to the gentleman's own conscience.

Mr. Sumner argued that it was not a question of conscience but of fact, and exposed the Jesuitery of the arguments on the other side; but did not vote when the question was decided. Several others refused to vote, and no voice was raised against this national degradation, but those of old Ben Wade and Z. Chandler, who both roared out, "No!" when their names were called.

Now, a people whose representative men perjure themselves, openly and without any sense of sin or shame, are a people who will bear watching. It cannot be safe or wise to admit them, as sole witnesses in their own cases. Their protestations of patriotism may be the announcements of facts, or a cover to conceal the deadliest hostility, as we have found them to be in the past. They may intend to be just to the ex-slaves, or they may intend to re-enslave them, whenever they regain power. Their words and oaths cannot safely be relied upon, and the nation is, in all honor, bound to protect its allies and itself against probable treachery. To leave the freedmen to the mercy of these people, relying on their professions of good will, would be a criminal act of folly. To assume that these freedmen are, now, competent to defend themselves against aggression from their former masters, is to form conclusions without a shadow of basis in the premises.

If they are now able to maintain their freedom, by what logic do we account for their former and utter subjugation? Experience should have taught us that constitutional and statute law is a rope of sand when the Southern people have an object to attain; and what reason have we to suppose that they hold the late amendments and laws any more sacred than they did the orginal instrument, when freedom of speech and the press were vauntingly and universally trampled upon all over the South in haughty defiance of the Constitution?

Regarding the South in the light of history and the peculiarities of her people, there is no reasonable ground for hope, that their present professions of loyalty can be trusted, and it would be a national infamy, almost unparalelled, to leave the freedmen, our national allies, to the mercy of men who have shown themselves most unjust, cruel and implacable.

Thirty years ago, when abolitionists were scattering "the living coals of truth" upon the heart of the nation, and endeavoring to convince her that national safety demanded justice for the slave, they were scouted and mobbed; but events have proved them prophets, and it was no truer then than it is now. The safety of this nation demands justice. The people we have freed, in word, must be freed in deed. The reign of terror, the war of races, in the South must be stamped out by the nation. The black man and the white man must, alike, be protected in their right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and the work of the Republican party is only begun. As the party of Freedom, it is as much needed now as when it first elected Lincoln.

AN ADDRESS was delivered in St. Louis on Monday by the Rev. Joseph Henning, a Catholic priest. This clerical gentleman is by no means mealy-mouthed in his utterances. He asserts that the Catholic Church is being persecuted in the United States; and cites, as instances of this persecution, the efforts to preserve the public schools from sectarianism, and the movements in behalf of compulsory education. He declares that the State cannot be independent of the Church, as the latter is infallible in everything; that a Catholic must be such politically as well as religiously; and that, consequently, it is the duty of every Catholic, in casting his vote at any election, to place it where it will do his Church the most good. Protestantism, according to Father Henning, is already on its last legs, and will soon be swept from the face of the earth; and, when that event shall have occurred, there will come "a time of peace and quiet;" order will reign in Warsaw; everything will be lovely, and the Papal goose will hang at an exceedingly lofty elevation. All the friends of our common-school system will do well to peruse this outspoken diatribe against that bulwark of our republican institutions, and, thus forewarned, become forearmed for its defense.—Chicago Tribune.

The Allentown Chronicle says: Seven acres of land are covered by the pig iron owned by the Allentown Iron Company and kept in stock at the company's works in this city. This is the largest stock, numbering thousands of tons, ever collected at one time by any furnace company in the Lehigh Valley.

A LAST WORD.

The time for argument is now past, and to-day must be devoted to securing an honest expression of the popular will. The people must now decide the contest for themselves, and we leave the matter in their hands, confident that they will decide it wisely, and in accordance with the principles to which they are devoted.

In a government of the people every man is, to some extent, a ruler, and it is his duty, to-day, to use his prerogative in accordance with his judgment. Voting is not a mere privilege; it is a right; and the possession of the right implies the duty of exercising it. The man who does not vote is faithless to the trust reposed in him. His rights have been given him for his own protection, and if he neglects or refuses to use them he must not complain if he is afterward made a sufferer. Go, therefore, and vote, and vote intelligently and conscientiously, with an abiding sense of the responsibility which the act of voting involves.

And vote early. The voter who gets his vote in during the morning is sure of his work; whereas he who puts it off till evening may find the polls too much crowded by other laggards, and he may thus lose his opportunity. In all human affairs it is a perfectly safe rule never to put off till evening what can as easily be done in the morning.

In our humble judgment, the conscientious voter can best meet his responsibilities and duties by voting the Republican ticket. It is composed of honest, pure, upright and capable men, and it represents principles that cannot be controverted or successfully questioned. In a long campaign, no attack has been made upon the integrity or capacity of the men comprising the Republican ticket; and a ticket which commands general respect is worthy of general support.

And do not throw your vote away. A vote for a third ticket is a vote for a mere abstraction. It represents nothing and can accomplish nothing. The battle is a battle between the two leading parties of the country, and a vote for a third party is simply half a vote for the most obnoxious of the two. It is a poor business for intelligent gentlemen to be engaged in, to refuse to decide between the right and the wrong, and try to escape responsibility by throwing votes away upon a party that has not the shadow of a chance. Vote so as to make your vote tell. If you want to make your influence felt, cast your suffrage where something can be accomplished by it. Votes were not given us to play with, but to be used in earnest, and to some practical end; and it is simply playing at voting to vote for a third party ticket to-day.

HUNT UP YOUR TAX RECEIPTS.

EVERY man is needed at the front.

LET there be no stay-at-home voters this year.

VOTE the Republican ticket if you wish the public business properly conducted.

As THE day of election draws near, our friends should redouble their labors.

LET no personal consideration of comfort or convenience stand in the way of voting.

DON'T help the Democracy by throwing away your votes on temperance candidates.

A FEW hours hard work on the part of Republicans to-day will avert years of disaster.

REPUBLICANS, are each of you doing your duty? If not, go to work, and work with a will!

A PERSONAL canvass is the most effectual work that can be done toward securing a political victory.

REBELLION is not dead. It only sleeps, ready to spring into being at the nod of its leaders and sympathizers.

SOLDIER'S votes will go against PERSHING and PIOLLET, because PERSHING and PIOLLET went against soldiers.

THE Post wears a very distressed air, these days. Cheer up, neighbor; you will feel better after you have had your licking.

THE Republican party was the growth of necessity, the creation of the ideas of the nineteenth century against those that took hold of other ages.

EVERY temperance vote diverted from the Republican ticket is a vote for the restoration of the Democracy to power. And we all know what that means.

VOTE for HENRY RAWLE, for State Treasurer, so as to secure the honest disbursement of the public moneys, and a capable business administration.

THE New York Tribune supports PIOLLET for State Treasurer; but as Mr. TOOTS observes, "its of no consequence." The Tribune also supports Tammany.

PUT the power in their hands, and the Democratic party would fling the credit of the Government into the abyss of repudiation, and ultimately into bankruptcy.

THE workingmen of Allegheny county will do well to remember to-day that the Democratic party is for free trade, which means low wages, privation and misery.

READER! If you have not voted when this reaches your eye, go and do it without delay. No man should feel easy to-day, whose vote is not in the ballot box.

VOTERS who believe in a safe and uniform bank-note will vote for the Republican ticket. The Democratic financial policy includes the destruction of the national bank system.

"THE character of Governor HARTRANFT for honesty, integrity and patriotism cannot be successfully impeached."—Francis W. Hughes, at the Pershing Ratification Meeting, Pottsville, Pa.

VOTERS who wish to see the county business carried on with fidelity and to the greatest benefit of the whole people of the county, will cast their ballots for the whole Republican ticket.

VOTE for JOHN F. HARTRANFT, a defender of the Union, a civil administrator distinguished for ability, purity and fidelity, for Governor, and thus secure an honest State government.

THE public debt was reduced last month $4,669,015 69. According to the Democratic press, this is a strong argument why the people ought not to entrust the Republican party with further power.

BE SURE and vote against the dirty-handed PIOLLET. Pennsylvania wants none but men above suspicion in her places of trust; and a vote for PIOLLET is a vote for plunder and personal impurity.

LET every Republican in the county be at his post on election day. If all are there and each man does his duty the Republicans of the county will witness a victory similar to those we had a few years ago.

REMEMBER that one vote may decide the fate of the ticket. What Republican can assume the responsibility of a defeat? Let no personal consideration of comfort or convenience stand in the way of voting.

VOTE for RICHARD H. FIFE for Sheriff, and be sure that you are not imposed upon by a bogus ticket, with his name omitted. FIFE is honest, capable and faithful, and is fairly entitled to every Republican vote.

"IT IS now apparent," says the New York Herald, "that the Pennsylvania Democrats are riding a dead horse. They can neither dismount with credit nor keep the saddle with any hope of winning the race."

THE Republican party is opposed to any policy that seeks to divide the public school funds, or to introduce into the schools sectarian influences. It will maintain the present system, as the best safeguard to the liberties of the people.

THE truth is, nothing was ever plainer in politics than the defeat of PERSHING. It would take little short of a miracle to change the current that is now running strong in Governor HARTRANFT's favor.—New York Tribune.

DON'T desert the ship that has weathered successfully the great storm of treason, and rode out the lesser gales of governmental reconstruction and the security of liberty. The party deserves well, let it be continued in well-doing.

VOTE for HENRY WARNER for Controller. He has served four years in that office acceptably, and has proved his ability to discharge its duties faithfully. Do not throw off a good officer for one who has not a particle of claim on the score of merit.

THE Chicago Tribune advises the Republicans of that city to go to the polls to-day with their revolvers in their hands in order to protect their own rights. To such a lawless pitch of insolent defiance of the popular will has Democratic "reform," there arisen.

SEE that the name of RALPH J. RICHARDSON is on your ticket for Recorder. Ralph is a young man of integrity and ability, and has been an obliging and faithful officer. No one has an unkind word to say of him, and he richly deserves a re-election.

THE twenty-fifth day of the month is Thanksgiving Day. Allegheny county Christians will then thank the Lord for the defeat of the Democratic State and county tickets—provided that they turn out in force to-day and discharge their whole duty.

THE County Treasurership is an important place, and it is desirable that it should be filled with a man of good business habits and unblemished reputation. Such a man is JAMES G. MURRAY, even his opponents conceding this freely. Be sure and vote for him.

EVERY citizen should vote. To fail in this sacred duty is to put in peril wise laws and good government. There is so much ignorance to contend against in this country that neglect of the franchise, on the part of intelligent citizens, becomes an unpardonable sin.

REMEMBER WILLIAM H. McCLEARY, for Clerk of the Court, in making up your ticket, and see that his name is on it. WILLIAM makes an excellent and efficient Clerk, and his unanimous renomination shows the high opinion generally entertained of him.

WHEN the immortal ABRAHAM LINCOLN was murdered, PONTIUS PIOLLET, the present Democratic nominee for State Treasurer, brutally remarked in public that "THE MAN WHO HAS LED HIS FELLOW CITIZENS TO FIELDS OF SLAUGHTER DESERVES NO BETTER FATE."

IF THERE ever was a time when it was of the utmost importance that every Republican should be up and doing, that time is to-day. Let every Republican determine to do his very best; and this can only be done by a stern resolve, made and redeemed, to get out the very last vote.

VOTE for JOSEPH H. GRAY, for Register. He fought your battles when the country was in peril, and bears about him, in his wounded body, the evidences of his bravery. He has already filled the office with great credit to himself, and the county is sure of a good officer in securing his re-election.

IT SHOULD be an encouragement to the Republicans of Allegeny county, and of Pennsylvania generally, that in nearly or quite all of the States where a knowledge of the sentiments of the people can be obtained, the Democratic reaction of last year seems completely to have exhausted itself, and to have given place to a reaction in the opposite sense.

HUNDREDS, perhaps thousands, of Democrats in this county will to-day strike off the name of ROBERT H. PATTERSON from their tickets, and vote for FIFE; and a man who is unfit to receive a Democratic vote, is likewise unfit to receive a Republican vote. Let no Republican be fooled into voting for a man of whom the members of his own party are ashamed.

THIS is a good day on which to remember that for nearly all the taxes that burden the people, the Democratic party is responsible. It ran up a debt of $40,000,000 in our State by its thievery, and it ran up a debt of thousands of millions in the nation by its rebellion, while all the relief the taxpayers have ever had from taxation, came from Republican administrations.

NO SATISFACTORY excuse can be given for any person not voting in a government of the people, and those that persuade themselves that by washing their hands of politics they do a wise or justifiable thing commit a grave mistake. No good Republican will remain away from the polls, when such momentous results may depend upon a solitary ballot as are at stake to-day.

ALL eyes are turned toward Allegheny county in the struggle which is to be decided to-day. She ought to lead the column of Republican counties in this Commonwealth, and roll up a majority for the Republican ticket that will electrify the heart of every patriot in the Union. She owes it to herself to do this, and thus remove the cloud which last year settled on her long-established and well-earned fame.

WE FIGHT the Presidential battle in our State to-day. If Pennsylvania gives 25,000 majority for HARTRANFT and RAWLE, the Centennial President will be a Republican. If she gives a meager majority the question is left in uncertainty, and we enter the contest of 1876 with the result enveloped in doubt. Every earnest Republican ought to labor till the close of the polls to swell to the utmost the Republican majority. Let us decide the question now.

THE Democratic party is the modern JUDAS. It is the pretentious "friend of the poor," but never put a cent in the poor man's pocket. It "carried the bags" for years, and it betrayed the people, and, in this State, as in others, has ever characterised its career by the most flagrant disregard of the peeple's interests. When out of power, it makes a great show of honesty; when assured of continuance in office it matches in sycophancy, overreaching and fraud, even JUDAS ISCARIOT himself.

PIOLLET, the Democratic candidate for State Treasurer, has the reputation of being a good drinker. He is said to take to whisky as a calf does to the milk of her dam. On a recent visit to Philadelphia he made the acquaintance of the "boys" composing the Americus Club, of which the City Item gives this brief account:

"The veteran jolly plowman—Piollet—visited the room of the Americus Club, on Friday night last. He told several funny stories and made a good impression generally. Some of the boys attempted to sit the night out with the farmer, but they soon found that he was a veteran, and while some had to be put in their little beds he was as bright as a dollar. John Kelsh and Bill Schible say, 'It was like pouring water down a rat hole.'"

VOTE FOR BECKERT and McCLELLAND for Commissioners. Pay no heed to the efforts to get your votes for this, that and the other man running against them, but vote for both of them, because they are both competent and deserving, and are both Republicans. Do not yield to any solicitation against them, as the result might be to throw the Commissioners' office into Democratic hands for three years to come. The Commissioners chosen to-day serve for three years; and if, by voting against either of our candidates, you open the way for the election of two Democrats, you will have the mortification of beholding the Commissioners' office in Democratic hands until 1878.

A FEW VOTES FROM THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD OF CYRUS L. PERSHING.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR.

It is claimed that Mr. Pershing gave a cordial support to the Government in the late war. Read the following, and ask yourself if they were the votes of a loyal and patriotic man?

Voted for Resolution declaring the Emancipation Proclamation unconstitutional and the President's acts arbitrary.—See Journal House of Representatives of Pennsylvania, 1863, page 887.

Voted against ratifying the amendment to the constitution abolishing Slavery.—See House Journal, 1865, page 172.

Voted against the passage of the Act of May 4, 1864, (P. L. page 221), providing for the organization of the militia.—See Legislative Record, 1864, page 918.

Voted against the passage of the act of August 25, 1864, (P. L. page 990), giving the soldier a right to vote.—See Legislative Record, 1864, page 1330.

Opposed the passage of act of May 2, 1864, (P. L. page 732,) providing for the payment of the interest on the State in legal tender notes, instead of specie. He also took the position that the United State Legal Tender Act was unconstitutional.—See his remarks in Legislative Record for 1864, page 140, etc.

The significance of this opposition consisted in the fact that gold at that date commanded a premium of nearly 100 per cent.

It is alleged that Mr. PERSHING is the friend of the working man. Let men who toil for bread, examine the following votes, and determine for themselves whether these are in the interest of the laboring classes:

Voted against passage of Act to prohibit corporations paying their employees in orders upon stores.—See House Journal, 1863, pages 796, 797.

Voted for passage of Act to make employees of railroad companies responsible for accidents.—See House Journal, 1865, pages 619, 620.

The three following votes further illustrate the attitude of Mr. PERSHING in the great contest between the corporations and the people. He was not with the people:

Voted against repealing the act of 7th March, 1861, releasing the Pennsylvania Railroad Company from payment of tonnage tax.—See House Journal 1862, page 558.

Voted for the passage of an Act, giving the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad Company power to construct branches without limit or restriction.—See House Journal, 1866, page 583.

Voted for the Repeal of the Charter of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company.—See Legislative Record, 1864, page 800.

The following is of interest to every farmer and lot owner in Pennsylvania:

Under Democratic rule in Pennsylvania the farmers and householders paid $1,500,000 a year of State tax, and the great corporations almost escaped taxation on their vast wealth. In 1866, the Republican party urged the repeal of all State tax on the farms and homes of our people, and the taxation of corporations in their stead CYRUS L. PERSHING "DODGED" the vote.—See Legislative Record, 1866, page 231.

The crowning impeachment of Mr. PERSHING's claim to broad or decent Statesmanship, is founded on the vote following, especially directed against a class of our citizens who were then helpless, and fleeing to our borders from their enraged oppressors:

Voted for bill to prohibit negroes coming into the State to make it their temporary or permanent residence.—See House Journal, 1863, pages 546 and 547.

VOTE EARLY

and then look after your indifferent neighbors and bring them out.

THE REASONS WHY

Every Reflecting Citizen in Pennsylvania Should Vote for Governor Hartranft:

Because—he is honest and capable.

Because—he has filled the Executive office during the past three years with enduring credit to himself, and with unflinching fidelity to the true interests of the Commonwealth.

Because—he endangered life and health, sacrificed the comforts of home for the hardships of the camp, and imperilled the happiness and welfare of his family, in defense of his country.

Because—he deserves, personally, politically and officially, to be re-elected Governor of Pennsylvania.

THE REASON WHY

every reflecting citizen in Pennsylvania Should Not Vote for C. L. Pershing:

Because—he is untried and without Executive experience in the affairs of this Commonwealth.

Because—his sympathies were with the rebels in their wicked attempt to overthrow this Government.

Because—there is nothing in his public record to entitle him to the confidence and gratitude of the people of Pennsylvania.

Because—his political sentiments are in full accord with all the abominable heresies which make up the sum of substance of our modern "Democracy."

Because—his election would return to power the same class of men whose management of our State affairs, when formerly in power, was disastrous to the best interests of the Commonwealth.

HON. J. T. UPDEGRAFF.

After the splendid fight made by our Republican brethren in Ohio, by common consent the seat of war has been transferred across the border, and to-day the decisive battle will be fought in our own State.

The Democrats imported their defeated but plucky candidates, ALLEN and CARY, to assist in carrying on the war. In return, the gallant Buckeyes, gave us several of their best campaign speakers. All of these gentlemen have proved the splendid temper of their metal, and, without being invidious, we can freely say that none have acquitted themselves with more credit than Hon. J. T. UPDEGRAFF, of Mt. Pleasant, Ohio.

He is a modest but unassuming, sterling gentleman, and his speeches everywhere have been electrical.

Being a man of fine culture, logical and clear, he possesses, in a large measure, the qualifications of a statesman and orator of national reputation.

We are greatly indebted to the Ohio Republicans for their timely help, and we predict for the distinguished gentleman above referred to, a brilliant future in the politics of his State.

ONE VOTE

may decide the fate of the ticket. What Republican can assume the responsibility of a defeat? Let no personal consideration of comfort or convenience stand in the way of voting

BOGUS TICKETS

Voters cannot be too careful in looking at their tickets before voting.

The cities were flooded yesterday with tickets printed exactly like the Republican ticket, with the name of RALPH J. RICHARDSON omitted, and that of GILES substituted.

This is an outrageous fraud, and nearly every other Democratic candidate has engaged in the same business.

Do not vote any ticket sent you by mail, unless you know from whom it comes.

Every ticket sent surreptitiously is a fraud and is intended to deceive.

Take your ticket only from those whom you know, and compare it with the authorized Republican poster at the polls.

We have repeated this warning so often that we are tired of it, and doubtless our readers are also; but the enemy is so persistent in his attempts to impose upon the unsuspecting that we must be excused for repeating, again, the caution—BEWARE OF BOGUS TICKETS!

WILL VOTE FOR JOHN F. HARTRANFT.

ALL the Boys in blue; and

EVERY patriotic citizen of Pennsylvania who stood firm and loyal to the Union during the late rebellion; and

EVERY unprejudiced intelligent voter who is in favor of an honest, faithful and impartial administration of our State Government; and

EVERY farmer and land holder who is opposed to a renewal of the State tax upon his lands and tenements; and

EVERY business man who is in favor of making greenbacks and national bank notes convertible into gold and silver at the option of the holder; and

EVERY conscientious citizen of this Commonwealth who will sit calmly down and look back upon the record of the three candidates for Governor and see which of them has rendered the best service to his country and should accordingly be remembered and rewarded by the people; and

EVERY TRUE REPUBLICAN in Pennsylvania.

VOTE THE WHOLE TICKET.

That is what we intend to do, and we urge upon others only what we are willing to do ourselves. This is no time for swapping horses. The county is to be redeemed from Democratic rule; and the only way to do that effectually is to vote the whole ticket and elect it. This is a contest for principle; and the men who represent our principles are the men to elect to office. A vote for PATTERSON, or MECHLING, or for any other Democrat, is a vote against Republican principles. Do not permit yourselves to be tempted into any such wrong. Our candidates are all, personally, the equals if not the superiors of the Democratic candidates, and the contest between them is not one of men, but of principles. Stand by your principles by standing by the men who represent them, and vote the whole Republican ticket as it stands as the embodiment of your political creed.

EXAMINE YOUR TICKETS.

We urge every Republican voter to make a close scrutiny of his ticket before voting, to see that it is all straight and regular. Bogus tickets will be plenty, and every device will be resorted to to defraud the unsuspecting voter. We know that the Republican county ticket is already being mixed by the opposition, in the interest of Mr. PATTERSON, and more of it will be done. The Republican ticket has been printed with the name of Mr. PATTERSON for Sheriff, instead of RICHARD H. FIFE. Again we say, examine your tickets closely. Do not suffer yourselves to be defrauded.

BE CAREFUL

to examine your tickets before depositing them in the ballot-box. Every species of trickery will be resorted to by the Democrats in order to secure votes for PATTERSON, MECHLING and other Democratic candidates.

IT WOULD certainly seem that there could be no hesitation on the part of the colored voters of Allegheny county as to their action to-day. Still, a word to them may not be amiss. The success of the Republican party at the present election is all-important, for the reason that the result of this struggle will exert a commanding influence on the Presidential campaign of next year, when a President of the United States is to be chosen, involving a question of their dearest civil and political rights and privileges. Let every colored man vote right. Let no man swerve from duty. You cannot afford to barter away your rights, for if you vote for any candidate on the Democratic ticket, whether State or local, you only place the heel of oppression on the necks of your brethren. To the Republican party you owe your liberty—your all; to the Democratic party you owe nothing. The Republican party so amended the Constitution of the United States that you, as a race, became free, and entitled to all the rights and privileges of freemen. It has thrown around you the protection of the law, and has given you an equal chance in the race of life. Every man who fails to vote is culpable, and every one of you who casts a vote for the Democratic ticket is welding a chain to bind you down, and is joining hands with those who would only lead you to bondage and ruin. Stand true to the friends who have stood true to you, and send abroad the news of another victory for human liberty to gladden the hearts of your race everywhere.

WHAT should temperance people do to-day? The veriest lunatic in our hospitals does not dream of the election of the Prohibitory ticket. Every vote cast for it will in reality be half a vote given to the Democratic party. Shall sane men, then, thus throw away their influence? But it is said, in reply to this, that temperance people must "stand up for their principles." This adage has been repeated so often, and this deceptive course has so often been pursued in vain, that reflecting men, who reason logically, begin seriously to doubt whether it is the best way to secure prohibition. To throw away their votes would certainly not seem to be the best method to secure any result. On the contrary, common sense would seem to demonstrate beyond the possibility of doubt, that the only way to secure any effective legislation against the evils of intemperance is to do it through the Republican party. That party has won unfading laurels by overthrowing slavery and by preserving the existence of the nation in the dark days of its supremest danger; and all temperance voters should trust that party, and act within it and through it to demolish intemperance in our beloved Commonwealth.

THE United States Economist says that the desire of the gossippers and newsmongers to create failures, in their minds if not in fact, is as great now as at any time during the panic, when the mention of any one's name was supposed sufficient cause for suspicion, and immediately scandal, with her ten thousand tongues, was at work in order to defame if not destroy the innocent. This custom of dealing so thoughtlessly with the interests of business and the success of individuals to maintain their credit above value, is a practice reprehensible beyond expression, and the laws should be made to work as good in the scandal case as with the bankrupt, that is, if the drawer of the lie cannot be got at and made to pay, the endorser thereof should be made to suffer to the full extent of the original makers.

ACCORDING to the New York Commercial Advertiser more activity in putting up new buildings prevails among the Germans than in all the rest of that city together. The expenditure by individuals is on a moderate scale, but quite sufficient to indicate that industry with frugal habits has its reward in a steady accumulation of resources. Here, too, as there, it is a characteristic of the German that, as means increase, the avails of his industry go towards securing a large measure of personal comfort, with a special penchant for real estate, but not to the extent of reckless speculation.

MISSISSIPPI is one of the States which hold an election to-day. On a full and fair vote the Republican party has a majority in that State of at least twenty thousand, but we shall not be surprised if the Democrats carry the election. By systematically murdering and intimidating the negroes they have prevented large numbers from registering, and of those who have registered many will be afraid to go to the polls. The plan has been thoroughly matured to carry the State by the short cut of terrorism, and the White Leaguers will stick at nothing to accomplish their nefarious object.

THERE is but one course for men who are sincerely desirous of reform and honest government to pursue at the polls to-day. They must support the party whose record is a good one, whose principles are sound, whose policy is safe and honest. It is upon the strength of its record, its principles and its policy that the Republican party appeals with confidence to the people.

WE do not see why this is not a good currency and financial creed: "Opposition to inflation; opposition to contraction; opposition to incessant tinkering with the currency, so that the business interests of the country may not be in a constant state of apprehension; a steady and prudent advance toward resumption of specie payment."

THE names of the Republican candidates of Allegheny county challenge criticism. Begin at the head of the list and follow it to the bottom, and the nominees will be found to be gentlemen of character, ability and experience throughout.

EVERY Republican who intends to vote should vote early. If four-fifths of the vote is deposited before noon, as it may be, the other fifth will be sure to follow.

THE Commissioner of Patents in 1872 registered as the trade-mark of a Chicago clothing dealer the words "Square Dealing Clothing." The United States District Court, in a suit for infringement, expresses the opinion that such words cannot be used exclusively by any party.

THE Hartford Steam Boiler and Inspection Company has lately decided to add to its already large business a new department, the object of which shall be the investigation of steam engine efficiency, with reference to the consumption of fuel.

GENERAL AND PARTICULAR.

If you want to get in a tight place, go to Toperville, Arkansas.

To-day will show pretty well which way the political wind blows.

Quite a movement of colonists Southward is reported from Ohio.

The Israelites in Pittsburgh will almost solidly vote the Republican ticket.

"Squaw men" are the latest thorn in the flesh of the dusky natives of the plain.

New Englanders are much exercised over the exhuming of a newspaper turned to stone.

Why not hold the Republican party responsible for the changes of the moon and the rise of the tides?

Democratic "reform" has hitherto been of so mild a type that no wrong-doer has ever been found out.

Conway's lecture on "The Devil," to-night, might be illustrated by subjects selected from the Democratic ticket.

Our brave Indian summer has departed for the happy hunting grounds before the insidious advance of the pale face, winter.

How still and peaceful it will seem, after to-day:

"When silence, like a poultice, comes
To heal the blows of sound."

The run of Southwestern cattle has already begun in Kansas, and the herds now coming forward are said to be of very fine quality.

The dry goods trade is dull. A reporter in the trade says, "there being next to nothing to do, nothing is done with great energy."

Democratic free trade has made the English shipyards idle, while our Republican tariff keeps Roach's men at work by thousands.

Mr. Levi Wagonseller, of Gallagherville, in this State, fell down stairs last week and split his tongue. Poor felloe, he hasn't spoke since.

The eye-sight of a Massachusetts man has been restored by the falling of a heavy weight on his head, and Pershing will see clearer after to-day.

A peculiar disease is prevailing in the river bottoms out West. It is a malarial fever, accompanied with a complete suspension of circulation.

The Chicago Times should brush up its geography. It says: "Sea lions from California are on exhibition at the Brighton aquarium, in London."

The public will be thrilled by the information that a German chemist has discovered a new substance which he calls isdibenzhydroxylamine.

Down in Arkansas a certain judge occupied the bench in a murder case, recently, while he himself was under indictment in the same court for a similar crime.

There are to be no medals at the Centennial Exposition, but the judges are to give their written opinions upon inventions or products found worthy of mention.

All the fools are not dead yet. A suit for the value of two hogs has just been settled in Logansport, Ind., the costs amounting to over two thousand dollars.

A diversified industry is apparently the sagacious motto of the Wilkinson county, Georgia, grangers, who have offered a series of premiums for wheat, corn and potatoes, etc.

Feminine thrift. A Kansas wife with the help of three daughters made more money this year raising silk than her husband with three boys made with a farm raising wheat.

The English style of coupling the name of a town with the river on which it borders, is coming into vogue here. How would "Pittsburgh-on-the-Monongahela-Allegheny-Ohio" sound?

The danger from shells buried in the earth during the war of the rebellion is not yet over. A Tennessee farmer, while recently plowing in his field, struck a shell which burst, inflicting serious injuries.

The election of the Democratic candidate for State Prison Inspector is urged in New York, on the ground that the majority of the prisoners would feel more at home under the eye of a member of their own party.

Arrangements are being made for a fast mail from Washington to New Orleans. It will pass through Danville, Charlotte and Atlanta. Passengers will save seven and a half hours between Columbia and Washington.

The biggest canoe ever built has been bought from Moquillah, a chief in British Columbia, and will be sent to the Centennial. It is sixty feet long, eight feet wide and four feet deep, and carries one hundred passengers.

The other day three men near La Grange, Mo., killed 240 black snakes on one ledge of rocks. Their bodies would have filled a wagon box, and weighed over 1,200 pounds. The whisky must be awful mean in that section.

A mineral bureau has been established at Alexandria, Virginia, for the purpose of collecting specimens of ores found in different sections of the State, and of ultimately developing mines which are believed to exist.

PERSONAL.

One hundred and twenty-six years old is Fortune Snow, of African descent, at Milan, Georgia. He was one of Marion's men during the Revolutionary war. So he says.

Bolly Lewis, the leading gambler of Cincinnati, has given the Tabernacle Congregation, of which he is a member, a handsome communion service of seven pieces. The gift was made unostentatiously, and received with applause by the congregation.

A boy of five years was the other day playing beside a mill-pond at Springfield, Massachusetts, in company with a dog. The little fellow was missed, and the dog was found beside the pond in evident distress. In response to the question "Where is Freddie?" the dog jumped into the water, and, just beneath that spot, the body was found when the water was drawn off. What was it, instinct or reason?

Here is a verbatim copy of a Florida bill of sale: this is to surity that Jacob Johnson has sold his wife Mary A. Johnson to me, Daniel Skillman, and he has given hur two children, the oldest and the youngest, and I, Daniel Skillman, has promist to take care of hur; and she has to have one bedstid and hur clothing and matres, and bed clothing, and hur things that belong to hur, Mary A. The House of Episcopal Bishops has just elected Dr. Samuel I. J. Schereschewsky Bishop of China, and the Rev. Wm. H. Clark, of Augusta, Ga., Bishop of Africa. Dr. Schereschewsky came to this country from Poland over twenty years ago; he graduated from the General Theological Seminary in Fortieth street, in 1868, and went to China soon afterward, where he translated the Bible into the Mandarin tongue. Dr. Schereschewsky is to have headquarters in Shanghai. Rev. Mr. Clark is a native of New England, and is fifty years old. He is a graduate of Yale College and of the General Theological Seminary of New York.

Last Saturday night, the Rev. Mr. Catt, of near Cincinnati, while making some closing remarks to the sermon delivered in the Disciple Church, of this place, was stricken with paralysis, and died in a few hours.

Enfeebling Pursuits.

Nature intended that we should use our legs freely, and revenges herself upon those who constantly sit at their daily avocations indoors by depriving them of that robust health which usually falls to the share of those who labor on foot in the open air, and very frequently inflicts upon them diseases and premature infirmities which they might have avoided by a more active life. Persons who become enfeebled in consequence of sedentary habits or occupations cannot do better than to resort to a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a means of recovering lost strength. Nor should they postpone a recourse to this supreme tonic and preventive of physical decay longer than is absolutely necessary, as weakness is too often the precursor of disease. The Bitters are also invaluable as a remedy for dyspepsia, constipation, intermittent fever, urinary and rheumatic complaints.

NERVOUS DEBILITY.
However obscure the cause may be which contribute to render nervous debility a disease so prevalent, affecting, as it does, nearly one-half of our adult population, it is a melancholy fact that day by day, and year by year, we witness a most frightful increase of nervous affections from the slightest neuralgia to the more grave and extreme forms of

There is great sensitiveness to impress, though retained but a short time, with a flickering and fluttering condition of the mental faculties, rendering an individual what is commonly called a whiffle-minded, or fickle-minded man.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

MONDAY EVENING, November 1, 1875.

The month opens upon a moderately active money market and the prospects seem good for a moderately active loan market during November. There is still a good supply of loanable funds which will probably be somewhat increased by the November disbursements of dividends and interest on stocks and securities held in this section. Still there seems to be a steadily improving demand for loans for legitimate commercial purposes, which will probably afford more general employment to bank funds than for some time past. The commercial situation is, apparently, slowly but steadily recovering from its prostrated condition, and the probability that the wages question will be settled without any stoppage of the works gives ground to the hope that the process of improvement, rather slow at the best, will not be interrupted by the disastrous effects of a lock-out.

The month just opening is one in which a considerable number of the banks usually make dividends. As yet the announcements are not generally made, and we have heard of but one so far, that of the German National of six per cent., semi-annual. A number more will probably be made during the coming week. The extreme quiet of the money market during the summer may exercise some influence in reducing dividends, but that will probably not have any marked effect. In addition to the bank dividends, interest on a large portion of the Government debt, and several issues of the railway bonds of this section are payable.

—The public debt statement published to-day, and which appears in our telegraphic columns, shows a decrease during October of $4,069,015; currency balance, $9,636,671; coin balance, $73,783,439; deposits of legal tenders for the redemption of certificates of deposit, $50,880,000; coin certificates, $15,645,100.

—The Secretary of the Treasury has issued a call for the redemption of 5,000,000 coupons, and 5,000,000 of registered bonds, total 10,000,000 of the 5-20 bonds of 1864. The large proportion of registered bonds on the call will, it is to be hoped, afford some relief to the gold market.

The bonds included in this call are of the act of June 30, 1864, as follows: Coupon bonds, $50, No. 3,701 to 4,300, both inclusive; $100, No. 12,001 to 17,200, both inclusive; $500, No. 18,001 to 22,000, both inclusive; $1,000, No. 68,001 to 84,400, both inclusive; total, $5,000,000; registered bonds, $50, No. 151 to 370, both inclusive; $100, No. 1,001 to 2,400, both inclusive; $500, No. 751 to 1,600, both inclusive; $1,000, No. 4,091 to 8,350, both inclusive; $5,000, No. 2,101 to 3,165, both inclusive; $10,000, No. 4,601 to 6,900, both inclusive. Total, $5,000,000. Grand total, $10,000,000.

—In view of the small stock of specie in open market, the question of the supply likely to come from the Pacific States becomes of absorbing interest. The total shipments of treasure from San Francisco last week were $2,603,864, of which $2,140,843 went to New York. The total shipments since January 1 to October 20, 1875, to all points amounted to $37,779,306. against $23,681,734 for the same period of 1874. The following statement shows the weekly shipments of coin from San Francisco to New York since the beginning of the panic caused by the suspension of the Bank of California, and for the same weeks of 1874:

August 26	$ 80,500	$ 250,000
September 2	10,000	500,000
September 9	14,000	332,547
September 16	5,000	950,000
September 23	190,000	532,760
September 30	476,000	305,000
October 7	588,000	100,000
October 14	930,231	229,000
October 20	1,925,563	468,869
Total	$4,219,294	$3,668,176

—The Journal of the London Statistical Society for June, 1875, contains an interesting article on this subject from the pen of the well-known writer and statistican, Ernst Seyd. He makes a comparison between the Bank of England and the Imperial German Bank (Reichsbonk), which indicates that the Germans have availed themselves of English experience by avoiding some of the most pronounced and dangerous English defects. Mr. Seyd says:

> Under Sir Robert Peel's act the total fiduciary issue (not backed by coin) of the English, Irish and Scotch provincial banks is limited to £15,857,000—the English being £5,713,000, the Irish £6,354,000 and the Scottish £2,789,000. The English (provincial) issues cannot be extended beyond the above fixed amount, but the Irish and Scottish banks may have gold and silver coin in due proportion to any surplus issue. * * * * *
> The German law prescribes to the whole of the provincial banks a FIRST limit of fiduciary issue of a total of 135,000,000 marks (after deducting 250,000,000 marks for the Imperial Bank), equal to £6,750,000, against the English £15,800,000. That is to say, the German provincial banks may issue £6,750,000 in fiduciary notes (without gold behind them), and for the surplus above this they must have CASH, which is defined AS EITHER GOLD, OR STATE (GREENBACKS) OR OTHER NOTES. ("Such other notes are those of other banks which may happen to come into their tills.") So far, says Mr. Seyd, the arrangement resembles our Scottish issues. * * But this allowance of £6,750,000 uncovered notes of the German banks is only what may be called the first limit.
> Our (English) limit of £15,000,000 (this is exclusive of the Bank of England fiduciary issue) is so far the final allowance of uncovered issue; the German law admits of further extension of issue of credit. Every bank can issue its share of the first limit without paying any tax whatever to the State; but it may exceed that limit provided it pays to the State a tax of five per cent. per annum on such issue. Such over-issue, however, must not exceed a proportion of one-third, to be held against it in cash (cash, either gold or State (greenbacks), or other bank notes)! * * * It remains to be remarked that these banks cannot issue notes in future of less than 100 marks, or £5 ($25 00). The State itself, under a law passed in April last year, will issue 120,000,000 marks in State notes (greenbacks!) of smaller amounts.
> If the Imperial Bank desires to issue more than £12,500,000 of notes above bullion, it can do so on paying five per cent. per annum tax to the State, provided it never has less than one-third of cash (i. e., either gold or State (greenback) notes, or other bank notes) in its coffers.

—The following review of the New York money and stock market for the past week is furnished by Trask & Stone, bankers and brokers, No. 7 New street, New York:

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

The Stock Exchange during the past week has displayed considerable activity, and while there have been some vivid fluctuations in prices since our last the tone of the market has generally been firm and to-days' quotations are, as a rule, about the same as at the opening on Monday.

We note a better feeling among all classes of operators in our midst and with the increased earnings of all our leading railroads, there seems a prospect of a further advance in stocks at no distant day.

To-day's transactions have been both spirited and large, indicating a revival of active speculation.

Reports from all sections of the country convey the welcome intelligence of reviving trade and a new era of general prosperity seems to be at hand.

Of the various stocks which have been worthy of special notice during the week, we may mention Lake Shore, which has fluctuated rapidly between 59 and 62¼ on large transactions. The business of this road shows a marked improvement and a dividend on it is anticipated next February.

Pacific Mail has been fairly steady, notwithstanding the published programme of the Panama Railroad Company to place steamers of their own on the route between San Francisco and New York.

Western Union Telegraph has been less well sustained during the week, but closes strong and in good demand.

The North Western and St. Paul stocks are without special feature.

Union Pacific and Erie are comparatively steady, but are still undergoing manipulation by their cliques.

Money is more active at 3@5 per cent. on call.

Yours truly, TRASK & STONE.

—The following table shows the prices of gold, Government bonds, railway stocks, etc., at the various sessions of the New York Stock Exchange during the day, furnished by the Fifth National Bank, No. 16 Sixth street:

—The Chicago papers are publishing a circular from the agent of an organization, the International Chamber of Commerce and Mississippi Valley Society of London, England, which discloses a plan for gathering information regarding American securities that is quite ingenious. It is proposed to send out next year five deputations of prominent capitalists of London to examine into the merits of such securities as are now or may be hereafter offered in the London market. These deputations will take it upon themselves to investigate and report upon the character and condition of: 1. Real estate loans and investments. 2. Mining and mineral improvements. 3. Public, railway and other corporate securities. 4. Laws regulating investments. 5. Agriculture and immigration. 6. Direct trade with Europe. It is proposed that each deputation be composed of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred persons, and that they start simultaneously from New York or Philadelphia, visiting the various points in the West and South.

Gold Closed at 116.

MONEY.

NEW YORK, November 1.—Money 3@4 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 6@7 per cent. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $1,248,000. Customs receipts $355,000. Bankers' bills 479½@481½.

GOLD.

closed at 116, the lowest point of the day; the highest price being 116⅜. Rates paid for borrowing were 1-64 per diem to 2 per cent. per annum and flat, but in the afternoon 1@3 per cent. was paid for carrying. The movements of gold between New York and San Francisco are reported very irregular. The receipts from the Pacific coast, this morning, are $500,000. The remittances to San Francisco are $350,000 by the First National Bank here to the National Gold Bank and Trust Company in San Francisco, San Francisco being suddenly run upon.

The bankers and merchants were making up their mail to-day as to-morrow, being election day, will be a legal holiday, and banks, gold, stock and other exchanges will be closed. Mr. R. B. Hall has been readmitted to membership of the Stock Exchange. A Wall street dispatch from London says Ehringer & Feman, iron masters, Vienna, are reported as having suspended; also H. Knestner & Co., bankers of Leipzig. W. T. McJilton, formerly of Johnson, Hersch & Co., announces his failure to-day. It grows out of the failure of his firm, the members having giving him their individual notes for debts due by the firm.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

Government bonds closed strong. In railroad bonds, this afternoon, Chicago and Northwestern consolidated coupon gold bonds were in active demand and sold up to 87¼. This advance is probably in sympathy with the increasing business of the road, the daily traffic showing an increase of about $5,000. Union Pacific sinking funds fell off to 86c; Chicago, Burlington and Quincy sevens sold at 107; Union Pacific firsts at 101⅛ and land grants at 97. State bonds quiet and prices nominal. Stocks were generally firm and higher in early dealings, but subsequently there was a reaction, followed later by partial recovery. Stocks were buoyant towards close, when the highest prices of the day were made in some shares. The market closed dull but strong. The earnings of the roads are steadily increasing as a general thing. Lake Shore advanced to 62⅝; Northwestern, common, to 37½; preferred to 51½; St. Paul to 34½; preferred to 62¼; and Michigan Central to 63. The transactions at the Stock Exchange aggregated 135,300 shares, of which 19,200 were Erie, 60,500 Lake Shore, 5,100 Northwestern, 44,450 Pacific Mail, 2,700 Ohio and Mississippi, 20,000 Western Union; and 5,100 Missouri Pacific.

GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, MONDAY, November 1, 1875.

The month opened unfavorably, the gloomy, forbidding weather tending largely to restrict business. Wholesalers and jobbers generally reported a good volume of orders by mail, but the city trade was limited. In values there were only a few movements of importance, the general market range being steadily held. Grain was easy and rather quiet with some weakness shown in corn and wheat, though former quotations were nominally maintained. In country produce we note a falling off in the jobbing prices of chestnuts, and a slightly lower range on sales of potatoes in car lots, under heavy receipts, and the unfavorable outlook of the weather, for handling this article. Groceries showed a decline of 1c on roasted coffees, and ⅛c on standard sugars. In other lines of trade there was a quiet feeling at unchanged prices.

The receipts of the leading articles of produce since our last are as follows:

Potatoes, bus	1,903	Apples, bbls	2,460
Cheese, bxs	25	Corn bus	3,220
Barley, bus	900	Rye, bus	1,600
Oats, bus	6,300	Butter pkgs	45
Bacon, tcs	13	Potatoes, bus	5,005
Hay, bales	111

The quotations given in the following reports are prices realized in wholesale transactions, unless otherwise specified. On small sales, dealers will charge an advance. Sales of grain, unless stated to the contrary, are free of elevator.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Union Drove Yards, Allegheny City.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, MONDAY, November 1, 1875.

THE WEATHER.

The snow storm which set in on Saturday night had not given way at noon to-day, which rendered it very disagreeable to transact business in the yards, and there would be a considerable quantity left unsold at the close of the market.

FINE SHEEP.

We noticed in McCaslin's sheep pens thirty head of open wooled sheep and lambs from Lawrence county, which would compare with the finest ever offered for sale in this market. Their average weights were one hundred pounds, the heaviest of the lot kicking the beam at two hundred pounds. They were purchased by Harrison at 6c per ℔.

OFFERINGS OF STOCK.

The following table shows the receipts of cattle and sheep by rail, from which it will be seen that the run is 109 head less than last week. However the supply was fully equal to the demand. There was no improvement in the quality, the usual number of thin cattle and bulls being among the number. The prices ranged all the way up from $2 50 to $6 50.

State of the Market.

CATTLE.

As shown above, the run of cattle by rail is 109 head less than last week, nor were the numbers driven in from the adjacent counties quite so heavy, and the whole number of offerings would not exceed 600 head. As before remarked, there was no improvement in the quality of the stock, being composed of fat, smooth steers, thin grassers, bulls and scallawags. The market was pronounced a dull one, but as most of the stock was purchased low, little money would be lost. We quote as follows:

Choice, 1,400 to 1,500 ℔s steers	$6 00@6 50
Choice, 1,200 to 1,300 ℔s steers	5 00@5 50
Good, 900 to 1,000 ℔s steers	4 50@4 75
Fair, 800 to 900 ℔s steers	3 50@4 00
Bulls	2 50@3 50

HOGS.

The total number of offerings would foot up about 300 head. The market was slow and dull, with prices about the same as those ruling last week. We quote as follows:

Best Philadelphias	$7 50@8 50
Good Yorkers	7 00@7 25
Roughs	6 50@7 00

SHEEP.

The offerings of sheep would amount to some 1,200 head. The market was dull and draggy and quite a number would remain unsold. We quote:

Extra fine open wooled, 100 to 200 ℔s	$5 90@6 00
Choice, 95 to 110 ℔s	4 75@5 00
Extra fine, 75 to 110 ℔s lambs	4 00@4 50
Common stock, per head	2 00@3 50

MILCH COWS.

Considerable of a flurry in the lard corner of the Produce Exchange was occasioned, to-day, by the refusal of shorts to settle on the basis of Saturday's closing prices for October contracts, alleging that the bulls had acted in an most infamous manner in running the market up on them by means of fraudulent or "wash" sales. They state that spot lard all through the squeeze was obtainable at considerable under the prices demanded by the bull clique for October contracts, and regard this as a sufficient proof that the bulls were selling among themselves, with intent to deceive. Meantime it is estimated that contracts for at least 6,000 tierces are unsettled, the shorts holding out for about 16c for selling price and bulls for 17⅛c. The matter will go before the Administration Committee.

MONONGAHELA—Three feet four inches and rising.

Boats Advertised for This Day.

Brownsville and Geneva.......8 A. M. and 4 P. M.

THE marks last evening indicated three feet four inches and rising. The weather was wet and disagreeable. The prospect for a rise was favorable. The news from Oil City was good.

THE steamer Horner was sold at New Orleans for $7,000.

THE Mississippi Transportation Company are talking about building iron barges. Go ahead.

THE Wild Duck and barges, Captain Adams, will have dispatch for St. Louis and way ports.

THE packets on slackwater leave daily at 8 A. M. and 4 P. M. Passengers and shippers can make a note of this.

THE Minneapolis did not find water enough to reach St. Paul and was forced to turn back from Hastings.

THE coalboatmen speak hopefully of a barge rise. We hope and believe they will not be disappointed.

THE Ohio river at Cincinnati is down to 6 feet 7 inches. Unless there is a rise soon the big boats will have to lay up.

THE Allegheny river was rising yesterday at Oil City. Navigation will no doubt be resumed before the close of the week.

THE rise in the Ohio at this point will enable the Emma Graham to come through and leave on the regular day, Wednesday, for Cincinnati.

THE steamship Lord Clive, 3,386 tons register, has been chartered by the American Steamship Company to take the place of the Abbotsford.

THE packet Granite State, Captain Kerr, left Portsmouth yesterday. If there is sufficient water, she will leave here on Friday for Portsmouth.

THE flags of the steamers in port were at half-mast as a token of respect to the memory of Captain John Cox, who died at Brownsville on Sunday evening.

THE river men on the landing are anxiously waiting for a rise. They will not have to wait long. The election will close to-day and a rise will then be in order.

THE John L. Rhoads, Captain Vandergrift, will be the first boat for St. Louis. She has the principal portion of her cargo on board. She will go through without reshipping.

THE packet J. L. Rhoads is receiving for St. Louis and way points, and will leave on Thursday, positively. Captain Vandergrift is in command, and I. C. Fisher in the office.

DISPATCHES from Oil City report three feet ten inches and rising, with four inches snow on the ground. As the weather was becoming warmer we may look for a further rise in the Allegheny.

THE Cincinnati Times says: The ability of the Emma Graham to make weekly trips to Pittsburgh, from here, is settled beyond a doubt. She will continue during the season as a regular Saturday packet for Pittsburgh.

AN old sea captain of Deep River fell overboard in the sound the other day, but, catching a rope, was towed along on his back under the vessel's bow for a mile, when he was hauled up in safety, still smoking his pipe.

THE first-class packet Andes, Captain Muhleman, takes her departure from Bellair for Cincinnati, on the arrival of the 1 P. M. train from this city. The Andes is a reliable boat and a general favorite with passengers.

MR. EUGENE FUSZ, the energetic agent of the Iron Mountain Company, and well known to all steamboatmen who carry iron or ore, is lying dangerously ill at his residence in this city. There are but slight hopes of his recovery.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, MO., October 28.—Mr. H. G. Ackerman, employed as an engineer on the Government works at Devil's Island, was accidentally drowned this morning, while sounding the river. The body has not been found. Deceased was about twenty-eight years old and unmarried. He was much respected in this community.

THE new steamer R. E. Lee is to be furnished with nine boilers, 42 inches in diameter and 32 feet long, two flues each; one sheet only of four feet in each; all the holes to be drilled and double riveted; four steam drums and one equalizing drum—the whole to be made out of plate manufactured by the Burgess Steel and Iron Company, of Pittsburgh, and to be 65,000 pounds tensile strain iron.

PASSING AWAY.—Died at Brownsville, on Sunday evening, John Cock, Esq., an eminent boat-builder. Mr. Cock emigrated from Westmoreland county, England, over forty years ago, and located in Brownsville, and remained there up to the time of his death. He was an excellent mechanic and done a great deal towards adding to the prosperity of Brownsville as a boat-builder. He stood at the head of his profession, and leaves a void in that community that will be difficult to fill. His friends were numerous and all agree that he was a good friend and an honest man, and leaves a reputation that his family can point at with pride and satisfaction. His funeral takes place to-day at Brownsville.

MISS CLARA AYERS, daughter of Captain Monroe Ayers, a pupil in the New England Conservatory of Music at Boston, has been admitted to the fourth grade in that institution. There are but five grades, and Miss Ayers, by her superior attainments in the science of music, after a most rigid examintion was placed in the next to the highest. This recognition of Miss Ayers' musical ability will be particularly gratifying to her many friends in Zanesville, and reflects great credit upon her preceptor, Prof. Lilienthal, who has a peculiar interest in the success of his pupils. We congratulate the young lady upon her brilliant entry into one of the greatese schools of music on this continent, and her instructor to whom she is largely indebted for her knowledge of the "art divine."

That Cutting Affray.

This morning a preliminary hearing was held in the case of Wm. Antoine, charged with stabbing Paul Delcalzi, particulars of which we published yesterday. The defendant waived a hearing, and in default of $1,500 bail, was committed to jail for a trial.

Returns at the Lecture.

The lecture committee has made arrangements for receiving election returns up to the close of Moncure Conway's lecture tonight, which will be announced from the stage. Therefore, no one need stay away from the lecture for the purpose of hearing the returns.

Masked Burglaries.

Burglaries by masked men are getting to be of frequent occurrence, and there seems to be no perfect protection against them except in the use of some of the "time locks" none being offered to the public.

Already many of the banks are taking warning from the experience of others who neglected this precaution too long, and are contracting to have them placed on their safes, thereby ensuring protection to the funds under their charge and themselves and families from midnight attacks of masked burglars.

Good Work for Hartranft.

Prof. J. W. Wilson, of Ohio, has just completed a very successful campaigning tour, of three weeks, among his colored brethren in the eastern part of the State. He has organized a large number of clubs, and done most effective service wherever he has spoken. The State Committee, and a number of the County Committees, have complimented him highly for his valuable services. He has done a noble work for the Republican party of this State, and every colored man who has heard him will doubtless take his advice and vote for Hartranft to-day.

Turnpike Business.

The stockholders of the Chartiers and Robinson Township Turnpike Company held their annual election this morning at Hare's Hotel, when the following gentlemen were chosen Directors: John A. McKee, D. K. McGunnegle, T. A. Dohrman, R. F. Gibson, T. L. Duff, J. K. P. Duff and F. B. Nimick, the last-named gentleman being selected to fill the place of Rody Patterson, deceased. At a meeting of the Directors, John A. McKee was made President, D. K. McGunnegle, Secretary, and F. A. Dohrman, Treasurer.

"An Exposition Conundrum" Answered.

To the Editor of the Commercial:

A simple statement of the facts in the case will answer the "Exposition Conundrum" propounded by "An Exhibitor" in your local columns, yesterday morning. In the selection of judges to pass upon the merits of articles exhibited, the Executive Committee of the institute names one, and the exhibitors the other. In class No. 71, the Committee selected Mr. F. H. Eaton, and the competitors in that class, with one exception, and she making the largest display of all, were notified to meet on Tuesday of last week. This informal meeting elected Miss Sadie Riddle to name their choice for judge. Upon learning of this action, the lady who had not been notified, went to the Committee and stated her case, and another meeting was called, at which Mr. Ross, of the School of Design, was chosen. He was declared ineligible for the position by the Executive Committee, on the ground that he was an officer of the Exposition. A third meeting was then held, when Mrs. Jared M. Brush was elected, all the exhibitors being present, by a unanimous vote. If any one questions this statement, it can be verified by calling upon the Executive Committee. It looks to me as if the communication in your paper of yesterday was prompted solely by jealousy.

FAIR PLAY.

The Alliance Meeting.

The regular weekly meeting of the Allegheny County Christian Temperance Alliance, held yesterday forenoon, was an inharmonious gathering, although there was not enough persons present to get up an interesting antagonism. Some of the members seemed to think that the temperance cause, as a distinctive measure, was being injured by the political organization of the prohibitionists. Others denounced the preaching of prohibition sermons, as had been done in a few instances. Mr. Morris, an active temperance worker, expressed his determination to continue in that work, but from the vituperation that had been indulged in, he could not conscientiously vote the prohibition ticket. He demanded that his name be erased from a list of members chosen to distribute prohibition tickets. With such a feeling among the members, and so vague an understanding of the aims of the organization, on the very heels of the election, it is not to be expected that the new party will make much headway, or do more than "hold their own," if indeed they do that. Republican temperance men have seen the utter folly of playing into the hands of the Democracy.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

Pittsburgh Opera House.

Miss Minnie Palmer made her first appearance in Pittsburgh last evening as Little Silver, in the play of that name, and impressed all her auditors favorably, by her beauty and sprightliness. The play is an American comedy of a semi-sensational character, in which pistol-shooting, torpedo explosions and burglaries are leading incidents. Besides these features, there are, however, opportunities for some pretty good character sketches, which were well developed by the company. The part of the star hardly offered as much of an opportunity for clever characterization as those of Miss Hastings and Messrs. Owen, Waverly and Hartwell, but was very prettily played and elicited much applause. The minor parts alluded to were very well acted. The same play will be repeated this evening and till further notice.

Mr. V. E. Beamer's Benefit.

The sale of seats for this great event is still going on at Hale's, 103 Smithfield street, where a few good ones may yet be had. One of the most interesting features of the programme, and one that has received but little notice thus far, is the music by the Germania Orchestra, under the leadership of Prof. George Toerge. The scenes from "Stradella," by the Frohsinn society, the act from "Martha" by Misses Kennedy and Hume and Messrs. Boehme and Zimmerman, the comedy by Miss Effie Ellsler and the Opera House Company, and the poem by Colonel Realf, form a highly attractive programme. Miss Ellsler has won a brilliant reputation here during her brief visits, and is looked upon as one of the coming great artists of the near future.

FINAL SHOTS.

The Last Meeting in Allegheny—Stirring Speech by Col. Poorman—South Side Meeting—Dr. Updegraff Tracking Sam. Cary.

According to arrangements made for a final series of meetings, Col. C. L. Poorman, of Ohio, addressed a large number of voters in the Rooms of the Young Men's Republican Club, in Allegheny, last evening. It was the intention to have held the meeting in the Diamond, but owing to the disagreeable condition of the weather, it was thought best to remove to the club room. A brass band lead the way and soon a fine audience was collected. The meeting was organized by calling John Basford to the chair and electing a number of Vice Presidents.

Col. Poorman, on taking the floor, said that he was not an entire stranger to Allegheny city, as he had at one time made it his home, and during that time had the honor of being chosen the mouthpiece of the operatives during the great cotton strike of 1844. The final result of that strike was the passage of the "ten hour" law. Since that time he has been intimately and closely identified with the labor interests of the country, and is now engaged in manufacturing in the city of Belair. His arraignment of the Democratic party was a bold and telling effort, showing how utterly devoid of principle it was in adopting a platform for which the majority of the party has no respect, and with which it has no sympathy. From this he concluded that if the party will sell out for votes, it is not to be trusted now, nor never.

From this he took up the labor and financial questions, which he regarded as the vital ones at stake in this campaign. The industries of the country were passed in review hastily, and the cause of the past prosperity accounted for by the confidence and energy of the people. He referred to the great prosperity of 1872 and 1873. During these two years there was unsurpassed activity and prosperity in every department of labor. This brought the young men from the country to the city; capital rushed into manufacturing; millions of emigrants flocked into the country and filled our workshops, until at last the supply of all manufactories far excelled the demand. As soon as this became known the panic came crashing down upon us. The result was too well known to recapitulate. Now the Republican party has an opportunity to not only prove itself the friend and defender of national honor and integrity, but to make itself the true friend of both, the manufacturer and the laborer. He showed most conclusively that it was to the interest of the laboring man to bend every effort toward making our currency as good as gold. Merchandise, manufacturers and labor are now on a gold basis and it only remains for our affairs to be conducted honestly and fairly, and thereby bring our currency to the same basis. The Democrats propose to drive it further away from this only safe basis, by inflation.

His speech was replete with facts, figures and illustrations which were irrefutable. The audience listened attentively and went away feeling that they had listened to a fair, honest, manly speech in which the false doctrines of the opposition had been submitted to a severe test by which their gilding had been removed leaving them entirely exposed. His allusions to the integrity of the government, the career of Governor Hartranft and the necessity of guarding the public schools, were greeted with hearty, earnest applause.

SOUTH SIDE MEETING.

The meeting advertised to be held at the Republican Headquarters was adjourned to Odd Fellows' Hall, on account of the inclemency of the weather. A brass band was in attendance, and it was not long until a large and intelligent crowd had collected. The meeting was organized by calling Dr. M. A. Arnholt to the chair and electing the following Vice Presidents:

Harry Gearing, Wm. Wegiman, J. M. Schafer, A. Krein, J. C. Braun, J. H. Sorg, John Arnesburg, Lorenz Stoehr, M. West, L. Heinrich, M. Burke, W. H. Nantker, D. L. Jones, Wm. Waite, Wm. Gough, Martin Meyer, John Nusser, Samuel Boyd, W. Hammett, Wm. H. Alldord, Henry Rattleman, V. Herb, H. Bartling, J. V. Auth, Wm. Winkle, Jacob Haines, Nat. Green, John Hughes, P. Silken, S. Sampson, W. Anderson, C. Espy.

Secretaries—Albert Schultz, J. Hannah, D. Bryce, D. L. McCutcheon, Walter Chess.

Hon. J. T. Updegraff, of Ohio, was then introduced. He paid his respects to Sam. Cary, who had recently harangued the people of this district in his usual bombastic manner. The speaker knew him so well, and had followed him so often during the Ohio campaign, that he knew just how to meet his so called facts. One of Cary's "facts," which he hurls with a terrible flourish of trumpets, at the administration when addressing meetings in iron districts, is that at the present time there are seven hundred puddling furnaces idle in the United States. The honest fact is that there are less than seven hundred such furnaces in the country, all told, hence the glaring falsity of his assertion. Possibly he thinks that a big lie, boldly told and persistently adhered to, will do just as well among laboring men as the truth. In this the horny handed Samuel will find himself mistaken, particularly when he encounters the laborers on the South Side.

The speaker then touched upon the past record of the two parties, leaving the people to judge which had been honest and faithful in the discharge of the great and important duties devolving upon them. The present status of the parties, relative to the interest of the country in general, and the laboring class in particular, was carefully and effectivly discussed. From this he made logical deductions in regard to the future, which were not only conclusive, but convincing. The audience was very enthusiastic and greeted the speaker with frequent bursts of applause. Altogether this was a most satisfactory finale to the labors of the campaign, and will certainly have a good effect upon the results to-day.

Market Committee.

The Market Committee met last evening in the City Clerk's office, Mr. Musgrave in the chair.

The Superintendent submitted a report of the receipts and expenditures of the market during the month of October, as follows:

	Receipts.	Expenditures.
Diamond market	3,988 02	514 89
Fifth avenue market	223 26	90 04
South Side market	525 60	102 55
Fifth ward market	14 70	25 00

Approved.

The contract for making the alterations to the door of the Fifth Avenue Market House was awarded to R. A. A. Patterson at $11 50 per door.

The Clerk of Markets was directed to sell the stand of Ralph R. Heiser, market gardner, who is in arrear for rent.

A committee of three were appointed to examine into the condition and make the necessary repairs to the roof of the Fifth Avenue Market.

After the transaction of business of minor importance the Committee adjourned.

Base Ball Fight.

The Xanthas are out in a red-hot card in reply to that of the Braddocks published on Sunday last. They contend that the game belongs to them, mainly on the ground that the Braddocks were not on hand at the time agreed upon, and that there was not time, after they came, to play a full full game. To bring the matter to a head, the Xanthas issue the following ringing challenge:

We do hereby challenge the Braddock Base Ball Club to play us at Union Park any day this or next week. Game to be called at two P. M., on any of the following terms. A championship game, or an exhibition game, each club taking half the gate receipts, or a game open to the public free of charge.

WILL A. DRANE.
Secretary Xantha Base Ball Club.
FRANK CURRY, Captain.

Mayor Philllp's Report.

Clerk Crawford reports a good run of business at the Allegheny Mayor's office for the month just closed. There were 217 arrests, an increase of 19 over last month. Of these 99 paid fines, while the remainder were sent to the workouse, jail and such other places as their cases merited. The following is a statement of the cash receipts:

Disorderly conduct	$254 00
Drunkenness	35 00
Police fees	85 00
Commitment receipts	32 00
License	26 00
Sale of estray animals	11 00
Total	$443 00
Receipts for previous month	400 65
Increase for last month	$ 43 65

Real Estate Savings Bank.

The statement of the above sterling institution appears in another column, and is a very favorable exhibit. It shows that the bank retains the high position to which it attained immediately after its incorporation. Its affairs are managed with ability and good judgment. The officers and trustees are among our best known and most prominent business men. Depositors can find no better inducements at any banking house in the city than are offered at the Real Estate Savings Bank.

The Election Returns To-Night.

The Republican County Committee have engaged Lafayette Hall for this evening, and arrangements have been made for returns from all parts of the State by the Western Union Telegraph. For Allegheny county the full returns will be received, and as fast as reported will be announced. The stage will be reserved for the officers of the committee and the press and telegraph operators.

The Sandy Creek Meeting.

A stirring meeting was held at Sandy Creek, Penn township, last night. It was ably addressed by Alex. McIntosh, Hon. J. Newmeyer and James Fitzsimmons. The attendance was large and the attendance good. The indications are that there will be a full vote polled to-day. The Sandy Creek brass band enlivened the occasion with some fine music.

SEATS for the lecture of Moncure D. Conway this Tuesday evening can be secured at the Library rooms.

MURRAY AND MYERS.

Wm. Murray and Frederick Myers vs. the Commonwealth. Error to the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny county. An opinion was rendered in this case, in which the Chief Justice says that the assumption that the associate judges of the Quarter Sessions of Allegheny county, learned in the law, had no power before the adoption of the new Constitution, to hold courts of Oyer and Terminer for the trial of homicide cases, in the absence of the President Judge, is unfounded; and also, that the amendment of the indictment from "October 11, 1874," to "November 11, 1874," is justified by the acts of Assembly. No error was discovered in the record, and the judgment and sentence of the lower court were affirmed, and the record remitted for execution of the sentence. Murray and Myers were subsequently informed, by their counsel, of this action of the court, and did not seem much cast down by the news. In common with those who had given the case attention, they did not anticipate any other conclusion.

THE EGAN CASE.

A special allocatur was refused in the case of Commonwealth vs. James Egan, from Westmoreland county. The defendant below was acquitted of a charge of assault, the jury finding that he was insane, whereupon the Judge sent him to Dixmont, and afterwards, on application and examination of the case by a commission appointed, declined to discharge him.

The Kindergarten.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

In another column, this morning, there will be found an advertisement in regard to the Kindergarten of Miss C. L. Wilson, at 99 Penn avenue. Miss Wilson is assisted by Miss Morehouse, of Westfield, New Jersey, who was trained by Mrs. Kraus Boelte, of 1266 Broadway, New York.

The Kindergarten in this city has now been in operation a month or so. Quite a number of parents and others have attended the Kindergarten during this month.

It has been no small gratification to me that, with one voice, every one of these have spoken with the warmest admiration of the skill, the patience, the tact, the real genius with which these young ladies have entered upon this most arduous work. But a very much higher gratification has been the way in which the parents of the children in attendance show their appreciation of what their children are accomplishing. It is a simple truth that, in all my fifty years of teaching, I have never witnessed more gratifying results of a single month's instruction. Well may it be called "the Paradise of Childhood." Accustomed as I have been and as others have been, to see little children dread to go to school, and to hear them beg to be allowed to stay at home, as I have heard of not only mother's but father's leaving their timid darling at the school, and carry through the business of the day the pitiful look of the little pet as they turned from the door, and then see the little timid thing come home as if from out of a prison. In place of torture, where he was hardly allowed to stir or look around, is it any wonder that I look on with amazement as I hear these parents tell of the anxiety of the little ones to go, and that they cannot induce them to stay at home. Many of these children have been little tyrants at home—fighting with the nurse—unwilling to be dressed—kicking and flinging themselves about in rage if crossed, and now willing to do anything to go back to this place of play, of fun, of song and glee. This is no imaginary picture, as so many know to their intense sorrow.

There is another view that I mentioned to a county school superintendent, which he said was the best thing I had ever said on the subject. Here is a young mother with a babe one, two or three weeks old, say, weak and miserable, as so many of our American women are while nursing. She is driven almost to distraction with the contests and struggles between the nurse and the two older children—say three or five years old. The wonder is that she and her babe do not perish in such circumstances.

Now as their little ones go to the Kindergarten and be under the care of these accomplished Kindergarten's—the children are happy there, for three hours at any rate, usually, going and coming, four hours is hardly too much to say. Then another two or three hours is occupied in telling grandma or nurse the wonders they have seen and heard in the morning, and then with a romp and play with papa in the evening they are ready for bed. Bright and early they are astir to get ready to repeat the operation the next day. Let any one who wishes to know ask Mrs. W. A. Herron and her daughter, Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Chancellor Woods, Mrs. Lorewg, next door to the Kindergarten's, Mrs. McClurg, Mrs. Roth, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Evarts, Mrs. Bissell any of the parents whose children attend, whether those are exaggerated at all. Can it be possible, that the half of this can be true, and yet parents who can efford it hesitate to investigate the matter and profit by the opportunity? It is by no means chiefly in the interest of these young ladies that I thus press this subject. So few of our people take time to read, reflect and ponder a new subject like this, that I am, at times almost disheartened. But one thing characteristic of this community is, that when they once take hold of a subject like this in earnest, from conviction, they persevere and go ahead. There ought to be in these cities at least, five or six Kindergartens; at least one more in the city proper, one at Oakland, one at Lawrenceville and two in Allegheny—and I have faith to believe there will be. All who read the papers have heard of this matter. Let the press keep on a little longer, and we shall doubtless have them.

Governor Hartranft will unquestionably press the matter in his next message, and as he will almost certainly be elected by a very large majority, we shall ere another year begin to find active exertions in operation to provide the Kindergarters that will be demanded for the public schools. Then shall I be able to rest. By that time other hands here and in Philadelphia will have taken up the subject in earnest. So let it be. Who will help? Let as many as can, go and see what those young ladies are doing. They will welcome every earnest inquirer into the system. I know whereof I affirm, for I have seen it myself. May the time soon come when this old Keystone State shall send out such a voice on this subject as shall arouse this whole land to appropriate action.

JOSEPH S. TRAVELLI.
PITTSBURGH, November 1, 1875.

Library Lecture Course.

Mr. Moncure D. Conway, a gentleman of extended reputation as a writer, speaker and advanced thinker, will deliver at Library Hall, this evening, the second lecture of the course. His subject is a rather unusual one, viz: "The Devil." It will be ably treated.

CITY MATTERS IN BRIEF.

THE Allegheny letter carriers delivered 95,182 letters and collected 55,560.

JOSH BILLINGS gave the Freeporters a dose of his wisdom last night. They may feel a little sore over it, but that is the way it works.

THE notion store of Amos Steck at Greensburg, was burglariously entered on Saturday night, and about $250 worth of goods were carried off.

PROF. HARRISON principal of the Thirteenth ward schools, proposes to prosecute a number of boys who persist in acting in a disorderly manner about the school house.

IN accordance with his usual custom, Gen. James A. Ekin has come home to cast his vote for Hartranft, Rawle and the whole ticket. The General never misses voting at an important election.

B. C. JONES, ESQ., of Washington, D. C., formerly draft clerk in the money order office, passed through the city yesterday on his way to Alaska, where he goes to possess the office of Superintendent of Seal Fisheries. Mr. Jones was formerly a resident of Allegheny City. His "sit" may be a good one, but we think it is rather a cool proceeding.

THE ladies of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, with a laudable desire to aid the fund of the Sunday School and charities connected with the parish, have resolved to prepare and serve in the school rooms of the church a lunch and supper on Thursday next. There will be lunch from 12 M. to 2 P. M., and the supper will be from 6 to 10 P. M.

AN UNKNOWN man entered the house of Mrs. Wagner, No. 2,020 Jane street, South Side, yesterday, asked for liquor. It was refused and he went away. Immediately thereafter a satchel, containing $100 in money and two life insurance policies, of $1,000 each, upon the life of her husband, lately diseased, was missing. The stranger is suspicioned of having stolen them.

Symptoms of Catarrh.

Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery and acrid, at others thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang, the breath is offensive, smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, mental depression, hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above named symptoms are, however, likely to be present in any one case. There is no disease more common than catarrh, and none less understood by physicians.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY.

is, beyond all comparison, the best prepation for Catarrh ever discovered. Under the influence of its mild, soothing and healing properties, the disease soon yields. The Golden Medical Discovery should be taken to correct the blood, which is always at fault, and to act specifically upon the diseased glands and lining membrane of the nose. The Catarrh Remedy should be applied warm with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche—the only instrument by which fluids can be perfectly injected to all the passages and chambers of the nose from which discharges proceed.

These medicines are sold by Druggists.

Time Lock, or Chronometric Attachment

The chronometric attachment now being introduced by Hall's Safe and Lock Company, is a perfect jem in its line, being about one-fourth the size of any other time lock and can be adjusted to any burglar chest, or safe door, and is so arranged that the attachment can be set to go on at any desired hour of evening and detach itself at any given hour the next morning.

Mistakes of omission or commission, causing a lockout, are made impossible, and the purchaser has a guarantee of superior quality of workmanship, from the fact that the movements are full jeweled and made by one of the best known watch companies in the United States.

The few bankers here who have examined this new lock, pronounce it a masterpiece of workmanship, both in its design and execution, and it will without doubt, take precedence of any now before the public.

A sample lock will soon be on exhibition at the safe and bank lock emporium, 93 Smithfield street, and an examination of its peculiar features cannot fail to be of interest to all who desire protection of this kind.

We also learn it is the design to popularise the price so that no banker will have an excuse to be without one.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, FOR THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION, COUGHS AND COLDS.

The great virtue of this medicine is that it ripens the matter and throws it out of the system, purifies the blood, and thus effects a cure.

SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC, FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION, &C.

The Tonic produces a healthy action of the stomach, creating an appetite, forming chyle, and curing the most obstinate cases of indigestion.

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, FOR THE CURE OF LIVER COMPLAINT, &C.

These Pills are alterative, and produce a healthy action of the liver, without the least danger, as they are free from calomel, and yet more efficacious in restoring a healthy action of the liver.

These remedies are a certain cure for Consumption, as the Pulmonic Syrup ripens the matter and purifies the blood. The Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, create a healthy bile, and remove all diseases of the liver, often a cause of Consumption. The Sea Weed Tonic gives tone and strength to the stomach, makes a good digestion, and enables the organs to form good blood; and thus creates a healthy circulation of healthy blood. The combined action of these medicines, as thus explained, will cure every case of consumption, if taken in time, and the use of the medicines persevered in.

These Lands are offered for sale in compliance with the provisions of an act of Congress approved May 11, 1872 (U. S. Statutes at Large, vol. xvii, pp. 98 and 99).

They will be sold to the highest bidder for cash, in quantities not exceeding One Hundred and Sixty Acres at not less than Two Dollars per acre for all of said Lands lying east of the Arkansas river, and One Dollar and Fifty Cents per acre for such Lands as lie west of said river.

Printed lists, describing the Lands hereby offered for sale by their proper legal subdivisions and indicating the minimum price at which each tract is held, will be sent by mail to the address of any person making application therefor to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, or to the Register and Receiver of the local offices at Wichita and Independence, Kansas.

Persons offering to purchase may bid for as many tracts as they may desire, but each bid must be separately made and sealed, and must be for not more than One Hundred and Sixty Acres (and conform to the legal subdivisions embraced in the list).

Bids must be accompanied by 10 per cent. of the amount bid as a guarantee of the good faith of the bidder, which sum, in case the Land is awarded and the balance not paid, will be forfeited. Should any bid be rejected, the sum deposited will be returned to the proper party.

Parties whose bids are accepted will be notified of such acceptance as soon after the opening of the bids as practicable, and if within forty days after such notice has been duly mailed payment in full be not made to the Commissioner of the General Land Office of the amount bid, the Land upon which such bid was made will be again subject to sale.
